In response to your inquiry concerning Sullivan's annual leave and sick leave status, you are advised of the following:

ANNUAL LEAVE

As of the beginning of the current pay period which began Sunday, 10/3/71, he has 328 hours of annual leave or 41 days of annual leave accrued to his credit. In the event Mr. Sullivan submits his application for retirement he will be paid for these 41 days in a lump sum.

SICK LEAVE

As of the beginning of the current pay period which began Sunday, 10/3/71, Sullivan had 515 hours or 64 days and 3 hours of sick leave to his credit.

The above is submitted for information.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. TOLSON

MR. FELT
MR. ROSEN
MR. MOHR
MR. BISHOP

I called SAC Charles W. Bates in Chicago and told him, with reference to our talk some weeks ago, I have sent out a letter this morning designating him Assistant Director in charge of the General Investigative Division. I said I would like to have him get here just as soon as he can, in fact he could come and go back and bring on his family later. He said he would do so. I said I would like to have him here Monday morning. He said he will be here then.

I advised Mr. Bates that I have removed Mr. William C. Sullivan and dropped him from the rolls for insolence and insubordination; that I have named Mr. Alex Rosen as the new Assistant to the Director; and that in Mr. Rosen's absence, he will act as Assistant to the Director.

Mr. Bates expressed his appreciation and said he will be in Monday morning. I told him he can go back for his family anytime; that he should get the lines going here; that he has a good #1 Man, Mr. Rex I. Shroder. Mr. Bates said yes, he knows Mr. Shroder. I said Mr. Shroder's work has been outstanding; that he was on the [ ] case and did a very fine job; and that I recently made him an inspector.

I told Mr. Bates, when he comes in Monday, we can discuss the problems he will face and how I want matters handled.

I advised Mr. Bates that I named Mr. Roy K. Moore, the SAC at Jackson, as SAC at Chicago. I stated Mr. Moore has done a very fine job in Philadelphia on a special. I said I don't know how soon Mr. Moore can get out to Chicago because on his way to the plane a couple of weeks ago he fell and has a dislocated disc; that it will probably be the middle of October before he can get to Chicago; but that won't affect Chicago because Chicago has a good #1 Man; and for Mr. Bates to be here Monday.

Memorandum for Messrs. Tolson, Felt, Rosen,
Mohr, and Bishop

October 1, 1971

voluntarily so I had to take action yesterday to remove him. I stated that I don't want yes men but I want men to give me their views and, when I make a final decision, I want them to carry them out. Mr. Bates said this is how it should be. I said there has to be somebody at the top to make those decisions; that the President and the Attorney General have left me here; and that I intend to continue to make them.

Very truly yours,

J. E. H.

RETIREMENT INFORMATION

Date: 10-5-71

APPLICATION

- ☐ The "Application for Retirement" will be forwarded by the Bureau to the Civil Service Commission (CSC) for approval.
- ☐ The enclosed "Application for Retirement" should be executed for changed as indicated below and promptly returned to the Bureau for forwarding to the Civil Service Commission (CSC) for approval. The information sheet attached to the application is for your records and you should detach it before sending in the application.

DEPOSIT OR REDEPOSIT

Making either a deposit or redeposit is optional. Such amounts are paid directly by you to CSC; therefore, it is possible that you have already made the deposit or redeposit indicated below without the Bureau's knowledge, having dealt directly with CSC. If so, you may ignore this matter now. If not, after a review of the approximate annuity figures shown below, should you decide to make a deposit or redeposit, you should request Bureau to forward Standard Form 2803 to you. Return this form to the Bureau.

- ☒ Not applicable.
- ☐ The deposit you may owe is a payment to the retirement fund to cover a period of service during which no retirement deductions were withheld from salary. Credit is given for service not covered by deductions; however, if the deposit is not paid, your annuity will be reduced each year by 10% of the amount due as deposit. The amount you may owe is approximately $ 772.
- ☐ The redeposit you may owe is a payment to the retirement fund to cover a period of service for which retirement deductions were withheld from your salary but later refunded to you following your separation from civilian employment. No credit is allowed in the computation of annuity for the period of service covered by the refund unless redeposit is made. The amount you may owe is approximately $ _____.

ANNUITY

☒ Annuities are computed on 20 months of service. The estimated annuity below is based on your ☒ Bureau service, including 0 year, 0 month, 20 days of accrued sick leave, ☒ other civilian Government service and/or ☐ military service known to us, totalling 34 years, 0 months, 20 days. CSC makes the official computations and determines whether prior service is creditable, advising you direct the exact amount of your annuity. The figures below are only estimates, and they do not take account of deduction for health insurance coverage. You should receive the first annuity check about 2 months after separating from the Bureau's rolls. Separation for disability retirement or for SA retirement cannot be made final until CSC has notified FBI of the approval of your application.

TYPES OF ANNUITY

Married applicants only

	With Deposit	Without Deposit	With Redeposit	Without Redeposit	With Deposit & Redeposit
<input type="checkbox"/> Reduced Type of Annuity with benefit to Spouse (See over, next to last paragraph, Health Benefits Program)	$ 1770	$ 1764	$ _____	$ _____	$ _____
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Annuity Without Survivor Benefit	$ 1942	$ 1936	$ _____	$ _____	$ _____
Unmarried applicants only (Including Widowed or Divorced)
<input type="checkbox"/> Annuity without Survivor Benefit	$ _____	$ _____	$ _____	$ _____	$ _____
<input type="checkbox"/> Reduced Annuity With Benefit to Person having an Insurable Interest	$ _____	$ _____	$ _____	$ _____	$ _____
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Survivor Annuity (55% of all or the portion of your annuity specified)	$ 1068	$ 1064	$ _____	$ _____	$ _____ plus annuity for each eligible child.

SEPARATION FROM ROLLS

Since you ☐ will cease active duty ☒ ceased active duty on 9-30-71 your annuity will commence 10-7-71 immediately following the ☐ cease active duty date or ☒ expiration of current annual leave on 10-8-71 earned through _____ Item B2 on application ☐ changed to ☐ should be changed to close of business

_____ If annual leave was or will be used by you subsequent to _____, this date will change and the Bureau should be immediately advised.

- ☐ If retirement is for disability, separation takes effect after the approval of CSC is received by the Bureau or after the expiration of any accrued sick leave, whichever occurs later. Under Internal Revenue Service regulations, some sick pay and disability income is not taxable; thus, you may be able to exclude from Federal income tax liability all or a part of the payments you receive for sick leave used prior to the date your annuity commenced, as well as for annuity received as a disability annuitant. Any such exemption would terminate when you reach normal retirement age. Thereafter, this annuity would be Federal income tax-free until you had drawn as annuity an amount equal to the retirement deductions from your salary while you were working. CSC will advise you of this amount.
- ☒ If retirement is not for disability, the "sick pay" exclusion is not permissible. Once you have received in annuity as much as was deducted from your salary for retirement purposes, you are subject to Federal Income Tax on the rest. CSC will advise how much was deducted. Only if you were incapacitated and were granted extended sick and/or annual leave for sick leave exceeding thirty calendar days prior to separation for retirement might you qualify for a "sick pay" exclusion for the leave period.
- ☒ Questions you may have as an annuitant regarding your income tax liability or privileges can be answered by the Internal Revenue Service. Internal Revenue Publication, Comprehensive Tax Guide to U.S. Civil Service Retirement Benefits, may be of assistance to you. Note: You are required to file a Federal gift tax return, Form 709, if you elect a reduced annuity with benefit to surviving spouse. In the usual case it is unlikely any tax will be payable; however, a tax return must be filed.
- ☒ You should send CSC over your signature any change in address, setting out your CSA (retirement) number.
- ☒ Following your separation date, you will receive a lump-sum payment for your accumulated annual leave in the approximate amount of $ 4526. A deduction for Federal income tax has been made from this estimate.

FEDERAL EMPLOYEES' GROUP LIFE INSURANCE

- ☒ Records show you elected Optional Insurance of $10,000 and have Regular Insurance of $ 38,000.
- ☒ Records show you declined Optional Insurance but are covered by Regular Insurance of $ 38,000.
- ☐ Records show you waived both Regular and Optional Insurance.

You may continue your group life insurance coverage following retirement or convert it to an individual life insurance policy without being required to undergo a physical examination. Conversion to an individual life insurance policy necessitates paying the usual premium for a person of your age and class of risk. If you decide to convert, the Bureau should be immediately advised. Otherwise, SF-56, "Agency Certification of Insurance Status," will be forwarded to CSC and a copy sent to you. If you elect to continue Regular Insurance coverage, such protection will continue premium free until you reach age 65. At that time coverage will be reduced 75% (at 2% per month) by the time you reach age 68 years and 2 months. The remaining 25% is also premium free for the remainder of life. Optional Insurance of $10,000, if continued after retirement, will be at full premium cost until you reach age 65. Thereafter, it is cost free for the remainder of life and commencing at age 65 it will be reduced 75% at the same rate as Regular Insurance. The premium cost of Optional Insurance varies as to age, beginning at $2.82 monthly for persons under age 35 and ranging to $41.17 monthly for persons age 60 or over. Optional Insurance may be continued after retirement if you continue to pay for it until age 65 provided you keep Regular Insurance. If you retain the Optional Insurance, CSC will deduct the cost from your annuity. You must have had Optional Insurance for all of your service during which it was available (first offered in (1968) or for 12 years immediately before your retirement. Optional Insurance may be converted to an individual policy if you are not eligible to continue it or, if you do not wish Optional Insurance to be continued, you may waive coverage at any time by notifying CSC and still keep your Regular Insurance. Following retirement, double indemnity benefits concerning accidental death and dismemberment no longer exist for either Regular or Optional Insurance.

- ☐ You elected Optional Insurance on _____. If you desire to waive the insurance, you should submit SF-176. If you desire to convert the Optional Insurance, submit in duplicate a signed statement that you want to convert the Optional Insurance to an individual policy and wish to be informed how to do it.

Note: If the annuity of an insured retired employee is terminated under any applicable law or regulation, his regular and/or optional life insurance coverage stops on the date of such termination, with no conversion rights thereafter.

DESIGNATION OF BENEFICIARY, STANDARD FORM 54, FEDERAL EMPLOYEES' GROUP LIFE INSURANCE FILED:

- ☐ No. Beneficiary will be in order of precedence used by U.S. Government, i.e., (1) widow or widower, (2) children, (3) parents, etc.
- ☐ Yes; beneficiary designated as _____

This designation is being forwarded to CSC and it will remain valid unless changed or canceled. Contact CSC for any change desired following retirement.

FEDERAL EMPLOYEES HEALTH BENEFITS PROGRAM

- ☒ Records show you elected not to enroll.
- ☐ Records show you enrolled in the following plan:
- ☐ Government-wide Service Benefit Plan (Blue Cross - Blue Shield)
  - ☐ Government-wide Indemnity Benefit Plan (Aetna Life Insurance Company)
  - ☒ Comprehensive Medical Plan
  - ☐ Special Agents Mutual Benefit Association (SAMBA)

Note: The life insurance you have under this plan will continue in force until 1-10 or 7-10 coinciding with or next following the date of your retirement. If you desire to continue the protection beyond this time, you may do so without a physical examination. You may elect to continue up to age 70 at group rates 50% of your SAMBA Life Insurance. If you presently carry $3,000 you may continue $1,500 at a cost of $3.25 semiannually. If you presently carry

Present Coverage	Amount You Can Continue	Semiannual Cost
7,000	3,500	$12.25
10,000	5,000	20.00
12,000	6,000	25.75
15,000	7,500	33.50
20,000	10,000	48.00
30,000	15,000	75.00

The 50% of your SAMBA Life Insurance that cannot be continued with SAMBA may be converted to a regular policy with Prudential. At age 70, your coverage will terminate and you may then convert the amount of life insurance carried with SAMBA to a regular policy with The Prudential Insurance Company of America.

Your desire in respect to SAMBA Life Insurance at retirement should be communicated in writing to SAMBA, Suite 750, 1325 G Street, Northwest, Washington, D. C. 20005. If you have Dependents Group Life Insurance this will continue until the next semi-annual premium is due (1-10 or 7-10), with a 31-day grace period. You may continue $1,000 coverage on your wife at a cost of $2.25 semiannually until you reach age 70. The $1,000 that cannot be continued with SAMBA may be converted to a regular policy with The Prudential Insurance Company of America without a medical examination. The premium will be the same as if your spouse applied for an individual policy at that time. You may make the necessary conversion arrangement through the nearest Prudential Office. The life insurance of your children cannot be converted.

Unless you cancel your present enrollment, you will remain under your health benefit plan after retirement, and your enrollment will be transferred to CSC. The cost of your share of the plan will be deducted from your annuity by CSC.

Enrollment of an employee who dies while he is enrolled "for self and family" continues for his family if at least one family member is entitled to an annuity as the survivor. If the survivor annuitant is the only eligible family member, the retirement system will automatically change the enrollment to "self only."

The original of SF 2810, "Notice of Change in Health Benefits Enrollment," will be forwarded to you by the Bureau at a later date.

SPECIAL ACCIDENT AND TRAVEL INSURANCE (SATI)

If you are a member of SATI upon retirement, you cannot continue the Long Term Disability, Pension Supplement and the In-Hospital Income Plan. You may continue the Accidental Death, Dismemberment and Permanent Total Disability Plan and the Accident Medical Expense Plan at the same rates and amounts to age 65. You may also continue the coverage on your spouse to age 65 and your children to age 18 (or up to age 23 if a full-time student.) Upon attainment of age 65 you may only continue the Accidental Death and Dismemberment Plan but not the Permanent Total Disability portion to a maximum of $25,000 on you and your spouse to age 75. The cost will be 19¢ per month per thousand. The Accident Medical Expense Plan cannot be continued after age 65. If you retire due to disability, you should contact Wright and Company, 1001 Connecticut Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C. 20036.

Pursuant to the Director's instructions today, I interviewed Mr. W. C. Sullivan and Mr. C. D. Brennan concerning the leak of information to the Department as to Mr. Brennan's transfer to Cleveland as Special Agent in Charge.

Specifically, I asked Sullivan and Brennan whether they had discussed this matter with anyone outside the Bureau and specifically whether they had discussed the matter with anyone in the Department of Justice.

Both emphatically denied that they had discussed the matter with anyone outside the Bureau.

Both specifically stated that they had not discussed it with anyone in the Department of Justice. Their memoranda so stating are attached.

Pursuant to your question as to whether or not I discussed the transfer of Mr. Charles D. In regard to this matter, I haven't discussed the matter with anybody at the White House, Department of State, Department of Justice, Department of Defense, etc.

Reference is made to your request to me as to who I may have discussed my proposed transfer to Cleveland with after receiving it on Monday afternoon. The letter of transfer was received and timestamped in the Domestic Intelligence Division at 5:07 p.m. and delivered to me by my secretary approximately ten minutes thereafter. I discussed the transfer with Assistant to the Director W. C. Sullivan who advised me that at the earliest opportunity I should officially inform the Section Chiefs of the Domestic Intelligence Division. I held a Section Chiefs' conference and so advised them at 10:00 a.m. on Tuesday, June 29, 1971. I had no further discussion about it with anyone inside the Bureau or outside the Bureau and I had no discussion about it with anyone in the Department of Justice.

SUBJECT: LEAK OF INFORMATION CONCERNING TRANSFER OF ASSISTANT DIRECTOR C. D. BRENNAN TO
CLEVELAND AS SPECIAL AGENT IN CHARGE

Today you inquired of me about the leak to the White House of information regarding Mr. Brennan's transfer to the Cleveland Office. You advised me that the transfer letter was dated 6/28/71. My best recollection is that I learned of this transfer the day prior to the recent National Academy graduation which was on 6/30/71. Further, it is my recollection that I learned of it through other Domestic Intelligence Division personnel after Mr. Brennan had advised the Section Chiefs of his transfer. At any rate, it was common knowledge within the Division when I learned of it. I did not and have not to date discussed this transfer with anyone outside the Bureau. Specifically, I did not discuss it with anyone at the White House nor has anyone at the White House ever mentioned the matter to me. I was not aware that the White House knew of this transfer until our discussion today.

I do not know of anyone who discussed this transfer with anyone at the White House or anyone outside the Bureau.

You inquired if I am aware directly or indirectly of the reason Mr. Brennan's transfer was subsequently canceled. I have no direct knowledge of this reason and indirect knowledge only to the extent that it was fairly common speculation that Assistant Attorney General Robert Mardian may have intervened with the Attorney General to have the transfer canceled. I cannot recall whom I may have heard this from; as I say, it was fairly general speculation. I am not in possession of any direct or indirect information or even speculation which would assist you in resolving this matter.

I would like to add that I can fully understand the reason why this inquiry was made of me but that as a general policy, I do not gossip or informally discuss such internal Bureau matters as this with anyone at the White House as it is obviously inappropriate.

On May 4, 1971, while assigned to a detail at the car entrance of Justice, 10th Street side, during a demonstration, I observed and participated in the arrest of one [ ] for Destruction of Government Property.

I was positioned outside the entrance way, just a few feet north of the main gate. I heard Supervisor [ ] yell an order "arrest that man" for writing on the Justice Department walls with red paint. I was out of position to assist in the physical apprehension of [ ] due to the crowd separating us. I observed several agents take [ ] through the gates. The crowd was angry and began spitting, throwing stones and yelling obscenities at the agents. As the agents entered the passageway, I backed into the same area. Once inside, the GSA guards began to close the huge gate.

The crowd surged forward and someone yelled that Assistant Director Sullivan was still out there. I saw Sullivan standing alone about four feet from the gate. The crowd was yelling at him and the obscenities continued. Suddenly his foot flew out as if to kick at a demonstrator.

I did not see him make contact with his foot. Then to defend himself, I next saw Sullivan waving a blackjack in his right hand. He was still about four feet from the gate. Then two agents rushed out and forced him back inside the entranceway. The crowd continued to throw objects and spit at all of us.

To the best of my recollection, the following agents were present at the time: Supervisor Henry Schutz, ASAC Edward L. Campbell, Jr., and SAs [redacted] and [redacted] former SA [redacted]

In early May, 1971, a large group of demonstrators attempted to shut down the City of Washington, D. C. On the early morning of May 3, 1971, I drove Assistant to the Director William C. Sullivan on a tour of the city in order for him to obtain a first-hand view of the situation. Mr. Sullivan and I were the sole occupants of the automobile and he sat in the front seat on my right side. We were each carrying firearms and dressed in business suits. I also had a 35 mm camera and snapped pictures of the events when practical to do so.

One of the areas we visited was Dupont Circle, located in Northwest Washington, D. C. We approached from the west and stopped at a signal light adjacent to a Peoples Drug Store. Our car remained motionless during the signal light cycle and was positioned adjacent to the curb and sidewalk. I observed a young male demonstrator on the sidewalk to the right of the car and standing about 15 feet from the car. He jeered at us and made noises which gave me the impression he felt we were police officers. I raised my camera in an attempt to secure a photograph of the man through the windshield of the car, during which time he continued to jeer and moved toward our vehicle. Mr. Sullivan removed a canister of mace from his pocket, rolled the window down and sprayed mace at the man who was then about 6 feet from the car. I did not secure a photograph; the signal light changed and we immediately drove out of the area.

TO THE DIRECTOR:

At 4:15 p.m., 9-20-71, Mr. Sullivan called Mr. Miller to advise that he (Sullivan) was in Washington to attend a funeral and that he was returning to New Hampshire that evening. Mr. Sullivan then said, "I understand you have something to tell me about our foreign liaison offices." Mr. Miller advised him that the President, in conference with you on the morning of 9-20-71, had authorized the reopening of three foreign offices and the opening of three new ones.

Mr. Sullivan, on hearing this, asked in a shouting manner, "Who authorized this? Why did you (Miller) go ahead without my approval? Why didn't you call me?"

Miller explained the necessary action to implement the President's request was taken on instructions from the Director. To this Mr. Sullivan said, "I don't care who authorized it. It is ridiculous. This is an absurd waste of taxpayers money." He said to Miller also that if he (Miller) had any guts he too would disagree with this action. Miller told Sullivan that he did not agree with him on this matter and Mr. Sullivan hung up.

During this episode Mr. Sullivan was obviously highly emotional.

This is submitted for your information.

Mr. E.S. Miller:

Re: Sensitive Documents

About 3 weeks ago, during a conversation concerning another matter, former Special Agent [redacted], who is now Executive Director, Intelligence Evaluation Committee, advised on a highly confidential basis as follows:

Mr. Robert Mardian, Assistant Director, Internal Security Division of the Department, showed [redacted] a large number of extremely sensitive documents involving coverage which had been placed at the request of the White House, and asked that [redacted] take charge of these documents in order to afford them the greatest possible security.

These documents were the complete record of the coverage mentioned above, and had formerly been in possession of Mr. W.C. Sullivan. They are Bureau property. Mr. [redacted] was shocked to see the documents in Mardian's possession, since they are so sensitive as to represent damaging evidence not only to the Bureau, but to the President. Sullivan had previously indicated to [redacted] that he might turn them over to Mardian, who apparently was aware of the nature of the documents, but [redacted] had strongly advised Sullivan not to take such course of action, since no one outside the Bureau should ever have access to such material. [redacted] thought he had convinced Sullivan to maintain absolute control of the material. b6

[redacted] conversation with Sullivan took place probably in July, 1971, shortly before [redacted] retired. The documents were still in Sullivan's possession as of 7/30/71, since [redacted] worked with them on that date, the last day of his active duty with the Bureau.

[redacted] has no idea when Mardian got the documents, but he knows that he got them after 7/30/71. He gathered from Mardian's discussion concerning the documents that Mardian had had them for two or three weeks at least before mentioning them to [redacted] has told Mardian that he feels the documents should not be in that office, that they are Bureau property.

[redacted] has asked that his conversation be kept in absolute confidence due to the nature of his relation with Mardian, and if we are to continue to enjoy [redacted] confidence, and I think we should, every effort should be made to protect [redacted] in this matter.

This morning I telephonically discussed with Sullivan the matter of the special files which had been entrusted to his keeping. He insisted that to the best of his knowledge these files were in the Domestic Intelligence Division (DID). He said these files were formerly maintained in his office in the Justice Building but two or three months ago he sent them to the DID because of lack of space in his office. He said the special files consisted of approximately 12 large manila folders which would take up approximately 1/2 of a file drawer cabinet.

I told Sullivan we had made a thorough search in the DID and could not find these special files. He said that he would make an inquiry and contact me later today.

I interviewed Sullivan again this afternoon in person when he came to the Bureau to submit his retirement letter. His demeanor was unfriendly and brusque. On this occasion he disclosed that about three months ago, exact date unrecalled, he sent these special files to the DID in the 9th and D Building for the specific purpose of having them made available to Robert Mardian, Assistant Attorney General in charge of the Internal Security Division in the Department of Justice. He advised that this was at Mardian's request. He denied personally making the files available to Mardian and he believes this was done, with Sullivan's concurrence, either by Brennan or Bernard Wells.

Sullivan refused to discuss the matter further and would only say that any further conversations concerning the special files would have to be between the Director and the Attorney General. He said the Attorney General was completely familiar with the whole situation.

I pointed out to Sullivan that he was still on the Bureau's rolls and that I was his superior and that I was ordering him to disclose the person or persons who had instructed him to refuse to answer. He would only say "Any further information will have to come from the Attorney General."

Assistant to the Director Alex Rosen was also present during my interview this afternoon with Sullivan and will corroborate the above.

William C.
9/30/71 - While Mr. Sullivan in process of removing personal effects from his office, Mr. Donahoe asked whether he could assist. Mr. Sullivan said "No." Mr. Donahoe told Mr. Sullivan he was particularly interested in the sensitive material which Mr. Sullivan had been maintaining for the Director. The material to which Mr. Donahoe referred was extremely sensitive in nature and had been entrusted to Mr. Sullivan by the Director for safekeeping.

Mr. Sullivan told Donahoe he had sent the material over to the "other building" (Domestic Intelligence Division).

9/30/71 - Miller searched Domestic Intelligence Division (DID) space for sensitive material including five file cabinets of material which Mr. Sullivan had removed from Front Office space and had stored on 9th floor. He had done this on 9/9/71 following Miller's appointment to head DID. These cabinets were locked and supposed to be Mr. Sullivan's "personal property." One of the cabinets contained about a half file drawer of miscellaneous material which was removed, wrapped and is now stored in Mr. Ponder's safe type cabinet. This material included several file folders of Special Inquiry type data on officials such as [redacted] former head of CSC, three tapes believed to be Martin Luther King tapes, a history of the Mafia (tickler) folder dating to 1955, and a tickler folder on the Walter Jenkins matter were also among this material. b6

The sensitive material was not located. The five cabinets otherwise contained Bureau monographs, copies of speeches, and newspaper clippings. All this material has been processed and monographs returned for safekeeping in DID with other such material. Copies of speeches which are considered Bureau property have been filed as reference material and extra copies destroyed.

10/1/71 - Prior to working hours Mr. Donahoe searched his front office space, including safe type cabinets for the sensitive set of records with negative results.

CONTINUED - OVER

Memorandum to The Director

- 10/1/71 - SA Tom Smith advised Miller that former Agent Bernie Wells had told Smith about three weeks before that Mardian had the sensitive material on which Wells had worked for Sullivan prior to Wells' retirement 7/1/71. According to Wells, he told Mardian he was crazy for keeping the material and suggested to Mardian the material be returned to the Bureau. Wells told Smith Mardian wanted Wells to keep the material for him and was considering getting a special safe type cabinet for the material.
- 10/1/71 - Mr. Sizoo advised he had heard one of the men had seen Mr. Sullivan enter the lobby of 9th and D building on Wednesday afternoon (Sullivan was still on annual leave - 9/29/71). Agent only a few steps behind entered lobby and Sullivan not there indicating to Agent Sullivan walked up stairs. Note: Mr. Sullivan was not in Bureau space on 9/29/71 and presumption is, he must have visited Department space (Mardian's).
- 10/2/71 - Miller contacted former Agent Bernard A. Wells and in careful terms advised Wells we wanted to ascertain the present whereabouts of the sensitive material. Wells said he hadn't seen it since about two weeks before his retirement from the Bureau. Said he had no idea where it would be. Miller asked Wells if he had seen Washington Post, 10/2/71, and Wells said he had not. Miller advised Wells Post carried article captioned "Top FBI Official Forced Out In Policy Feud With Hoover" and that Miller was trying to get in touch with Mardian. (Miller had determined Mardian on West Coast with Attorney General.) Wells said that he thought he should get in touch with Mardian and advise him of our interest in contacting him and about what.

About half hour later, Wells called Miller to advise of his conversation with Mardian who told him (Wells) that "This matter doesn't concern you at all." "Tell Miller that I'll take care of it. Have him get in touch with me. Tell Miller not to worry, Sullivan won't get them (sensitive records).

Wells told Miller, "I don't think you'll have any trouble getting them back."

- 10/2/71 - Above information furnished the Director by Felt evening 10/2/71.
- 10/2/71 - Director contacted Mr. Mitchell who advised that Mr. Mardian had assured him the sensitive material had been destroyed. Mardian told Attorney General that Director approved of his taking possession of files.

Memorandum to The Director

10/3/71 - Miller tried reaching Mardian at his residence to set up appointment for interview by Felt - no answer. At 7:40 a.m. did reach him through White House Signal Board. Miller told Mardian he had been trying to get in touch with him. Mardian replied "I instructed Wells not to discuss this matter and I can't discuss it on the AG's orders. The Director will have to discuss it with the AG." He also said "I want to assure you there is no problem." Conversation terminated.

10/4/71 - Correspondence confirming information furnished Director by the AG sent to the AG. Correspondence to Mr. [redacted] at White House also sent advising of above circumstances. b6

10/5/71 - Mr. Sullivan interviewed telephonically regarding sensitive material by Mr. Felt. Mr. Sullivan said he sent material back to DID. Implied during conversation that Wells may know something about how it was returned to DID, etc. Suggested we look in the small safe type cabinets in Front Office of DID. (Material, not there.)

Sullivan said he was going to talk to Wells about this matter and advise Mr. Felt.

10/5/71 - Mr. Branigan advised Miller he had run into Department Attorney (Internal Security Division) [redacted] who mentioned Mr. Sullivan's situation. [redacted] had been out of town and returned Monday, 10/4/71. Said he heard (10/4/71) that Sullivan had been "closeted" with Mardian all afternoon on Friday (10/1/71) in Mardian's office (Sullivan was on sick leave). Note: Mardian with AG in Los Angeles on Friday. Above could have occurred on Wednesday, 9/29/71, when Sullivan seen entering 9th and D lobby. b6

Attached is a memorandum to me from C. D. Brennan concerning his part in the case of the purloined special files. This tends to corroborate Sullivan's story.

Brennan insists that he was not aware of the contents of the briefcase which he delivered to Mardian, and while this seems hard to believe we have no way to disprove it at this time.

I suggest that we take no action with regard to Brennan now and that this memorandum be placed in his personnel file.

Pursuant to your request, I am setting forth herein what I know of the existence of special file material which, as you relayed to me, W. C. Sullivan said he furnished to me for delivery to Assistant Attorney General (AAG) Mardian about three months ago.

I was aware that there was some sensitive coverage. I was not aware of the nature of the coverage, the scope of it, or the results of it because all of the material relating to it was handled and maintained by Mr. Sullivan in his office.

The only occasion on which I gave anything to AAG Mardian for Mr. Sullivan occurred approximately the end of August, 1971. I cannot recall the exact date but one day Mr. Sullivan personally came to my office with, as I recall, a briefcase about the size of a Bureau briefcase and instructed me to take it to Mr. Mardian. I was not aware of the contents and inasmuch as Mr. Sullivan was my superior, I did as he instructed. I took the briefcase to Mr. Mardian and told him that Mr. Sullivan instructed me to deliver it to him. Mr. Mardian accepted it without commenting about the contents of the briefcase and it appeared as if he had expected it. To this day, I am not aware of the nature of the contents.

Last night, [REDACTED] Washington Post, telephonically contacted SA Hobson Adcock of my office. [REDACTED] said he was calling in reference to an anonymous call he had received regarding William C. Sullivan. He alleged the caller advised him that Mr. Sullivan had been forced by Mr. Hoover to retire from his position and that he had subsequently been locked out of his office. [REDACTED] said he had unsuccessfully tried to contact Mr. Sullivan to verify this tip and wanted to know if someone in the FBI could do it for him. [REDACTED] was told that Mr. Sullivan is retiring and is being replaced by Assistant Director Alex Rosen. [REDACTED] then asked for some background data on Mr. Rosen which was given to him.

Contrary to the article [REDACTED] wrote for today's Post, he was not told that Mr. Sullivan's retirement was "voluntary" nor was he told it would be "effective next week."

Subsequently, the Washington Daily News called regarding the same matter. This newspaper had also received an anonymous call alleging that William C. Sullivan had been forced to retire and had been locked out of his office. The Daily News was told only that Mr. Sullivan is retiring, and he is being succeeded by Assistant Director Alex Rosen.

Top FBI Official Forced Out In Policy Feud With Hoover

By Ken W. Clawson
Washington Post Staff Writer

William C. Sullivan, a top FBI administrator who has been with the bureau for 30 years, is being forced to retire after a series of policy disputes with FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover, it was learned last night.

While Sullivan, 59, was on sick leave yesterday, his name was removed from his office door and the locks changed. Sullivan, once thought to be a likely successor to Hoover, 76, was not officially informed.

The FBI, queried by The Washington Post, said that Sullivan had voluntarily retired, effective next week. An FBI spokesman said that he was being replaced by Alex Rosen, head of the bureau's general investigative division.

Rosen, in turn, was replaced by Charles Bates, special agent in charge of the FBI's Chicago office, the spokesman said.

Sources close to the situation called the FBI explanation "a lie of the highest Hooverian order." They said that Sullivan has been under intense pressure from Hoover for months to leave the bureau but that as late as 10 o'clock last night Sullivan was resisting the pressure and refusing to resign.

The sources said they expected Sullivan to decide over the weekend whether actually to turn in his resignation or to challenge openly his one-time benefactor at the risk of his government pension.

Sullivan's ouster was foreshadowed about six weeks ago when Hoover appointed W. Mark Keip into a newly created No. 3 post above Sullivan in the FBI and just below the director and Associate Director Clyde W. Tolson. 71, Hoover's longtime right-hand man.

Like Assistant Director Sullivan's "retirement" yesterday, the promotion of Felp was not announced. Rumors of Sullivan's impending ouster reached civilian officials of the Justice Department last week along with reports that Sullivan's progressive attitude and efforts to modernize the FBI were making Hoover furious.

A former FBI official said last night that the downgrading of Sullivan's position was the tipoff that his days were numbered. "It's a technique the director has used for years," the official said. "You are bypassed and then ignored and if you still don't get the idea, he just takes your name off the rolls."

Justice Department sources said another cause of Sullivan's losing confrontation with Hoover was that the short, fiery Irishman had developed strong relationships with Attorney General John N. Mitchell and other top Justice officials, apparently casting doubt on his loyalty to the director.

The initial break between Sullivan and Hoover came during the early 1960s, sources formerly with the FBI said last night, when Sullivan argued that the major domestic threat was no longer the Communist Party USA, but rather the Ku Klux Klan's efforts to thwart civil rights advances in the South. "This advance was unfavorably received by the director, but Sullivan was persistent and actually made some gains in switching our emphasis one source said. "But he lost the whole-hearted backing of Hoover after that and the gap between them widened as the years went by."

Sullivan reportedly was the only top FBI executive addressed by his first name by Hoover in recent years. Sullivan is described as a favorite of Hoover's for years because of his intellectual approach to his duties.

"Bill Sullivan understood communism, domestic and international, better than anyone in or out of the FBI," a source said. "In the beginning he was a great favorite because his academic background and knowledge permitted him to give FBI material on communism a more tolerant and learned tone."

In recent years Sullivan has publicly denounced youthful radicals and black extremist groups. At the 1970 UPI editors and publishers conference, he referred to the Black Panther Party as "the vanguard of black extremism" and said it was responsible for many of the 190 racially motivated attacks on policemen that year.

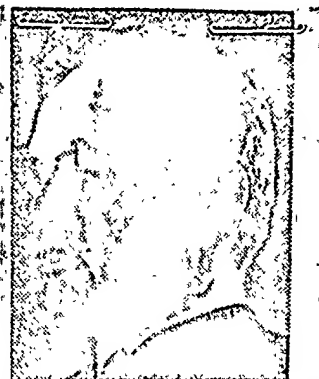

In 1969, he alerted the U.S. Chamber of Commerce to a series of "work-ins" planned by Students for a Democratic Society to infiltrate factories and capture working class sentiment. Prior to the 1970 congressional elections, Sullivan said that young radicals might try to kidnap candidates stumping the country.

Sullivan, who holds a master of education degree from George Washington University and a doctor of laws degree from American University, continued to study and lecture at major universities during his entire FBI career, which started in 1941.

By the time he was promoted to assistant director in charge of the FBI's domestic intelligence division in 1961, he was widely known as a scholar as well as an intelligence expert.

"That was his forte and also his downfall," an FBI source said. "He gained a broader perspective and with it came a more progressive attitude. I'm not saying everything he wanted to do was great; it wasn't. The point is, he wanted to change things; he wondered out loud why we did things the way we did; why it couldn't be done with more effective results. In the FBI, that is like pouring gasoline over your own head."

"The director is the only one with a match."

... forced to retire.

'EDGED DOWN' EARLIER

Key FBI Official Leaving

William C. Sullivan, 59, veteran FBI official who was edged down in July from the No. 3 spot in the bureau's hierarchy, is leaving the agency.

An FBI spokesman today confirmed that Sullivan is retiring, amid reports that friction had developed between Sullivan, who has been with the bureau 30 years, and FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover.

Sullivan had served as assistant to Hoover since June 1970 when he replaced Cartha D. (Deke) DeLoach, a longtime Hoover assistant who resigned to take a job outside the agency. Sullivan could not be reached for comment.

The FBI said only that Sullivan retired this week and was being replaced by Alex Rosen, head of the bureau's general investigative division.

Rosen, who has headed the investigative division since 1961, has been an assistant director since 1942. He will be succeeded by Charles Bates, special agent in charge of the FBI's Chicago office and a veteran of 30 years with the bureau, the spokesman said.

Hoover's appointment in July of Mark Felt, 58-year-old head of the internal inspection division, to a new No. 3 spot in the agency raised speculation that the 76-year-old director had settled on the man he would like to replace him.

No announcement of the promotion was made beyond an article in the FBI employe magazine, the Investigator. Felt's new title is assistant director-deputy associate director.

This placed him between Hoover's second in command, Clyde A. Tolson, the associate director, 71, and ailing, and the two assistants to the director, Sullivan and John P. Mohr.

Before his appointment as assistant to Hoover, Sullivan as director of the domestic intelligence division of the bureau for nine years had been one of the Nation's top spy catchers.

A native of Bolton, Mass., he served with the FBI in all sections of the United States and worked overseas during World War II.

He holds bachelor's and master's education degrees from George Washington University, and in 1957 completed work on a doctor of laws degree at American University.

He has served as a research associate of the Hoover Institution on War, Revolution and Peace at Stanford University.

He is married and has two sons and a daughter, and lives at Cheverly, Md.

Under special legislation, FBI agents may retire at the age of 50 after 20 years of service.

Former Assistant to the Director Alan Belmont called me around 4:30 p.m. today and stated he had received a long distance telephone call from an individual who described himself as [redacted] (no first name) of the Washington Bureau of the New York Times. [redacted] said he wanted to talk to Belmont informally and off the record. Belmont told [redacted] he would listen to what he had to say but he was not sure whether he would answer all of his questions. [redacted] asked the following questions and Belmont gave the response indicated:

Was Sullivan ever SAC of an FBI field office. Belmont responded that he did not recall that Sullivan was ever SAC of a field office but did recall that he served on SIS in rather important capacities during his Bureau career.

Was Sullivan the most experienced Bureau official in the fields of security and espionage. Belmont responded he did not agree that Sullivan enjoyed such a category, that there were many in the Bureau who had outstanding qualifications in the security and espionage field.

There was a liaison group in the FBI of ten Special Agents or so. The question was whether this liaison group had been cut down substantially in the recent past. Belmont responded he had no knowledge of any such internal reorganization in the FBI.

Manpower allegedly has been taken off security and espionage work and diverted to civil rights investigations - is this correct? Mr. Belmont stated he had no knowledge of any such reassignment of personnel as indicated.

Do you, Belmont, know Al Rosen. Belmont responded that he knew Al Rosen as a personal friend and as a Bureau official of many years standing and that he had a high regard for Al Rosen.

Does Al Rosen have any experience on security matters. Mr. Belmont responded that Al Rosen had a wide experience in Bureau investigative activities, had been Assistant Director of the General Investigative Division for many years and obviously had considerable contact and experience with security work.

Do you, Belmont, know Mark ~~Felt~~. Belmont said he responded by indicating that he knew Mark Felt and he gave a little background of Felt's Bureau experience indicating that at one time he was SAC at Kansas City, was Assistant Director in charge of the Inspection Division and had been recently assigned to some other official position at the Seat of Government; however, that he, Belmont, did not know of any current changes or assignments of personnel in the FBI at the present time.

Belmont said the whole tenor of the questions seemed to be is the Bureau paying sufficient attention to security and espionage matters. Belmont said in trying to answer [ ] questions he made it a point to state that he has been away from the FBI for more than five years, that he has no knowledge<sup>b6</sup> of what is transpiring at the present time, that he is not acquainted with some of the current Bureau top personnel but that he does know Sullivan and has a high regard for him and that he also wanted [ ] to specifically and definitely understand that he has a high regard for Mr. Hoover and the Bureau and for what Mr. Hoover and the Bureau are trying to do in so far as the welfare of this country is concerned.

The following is a brief summary of Mr. Sullivan's record for the Director's use.

He entered on duty on 8-4-41, as a Special Agent and has served in various field offices and at the Seat of Government in the Domestic Intelligence Division. On 8-1-70, he was designated Assistant to the Director, (Investigative). He is in Grade GS-18, $36,000 per annum, is 59 years of age, is married and has 3 children. His services were rated OUTSTANDING on his last performance rating dated 3-31-71. He does not list an office of preference.

He was last CENSURED on 3-24-71, as he had shared in failure to notify the Attorney General of the burglary of the Media Resident Agency following the incident. He was last COMMENDED on 2-24-70, for the expert overall direction he afforded a matter of extreme importance to the FBI in the security field. (RE: [redacted]) [redacted]. Since then he has received 2 INCENTIVE AWARDS, 1 on 8-21-70, in the amount of $200.00 for his exceptionally meritorious services during the period of time the Director was away from Washington; the other on 4-5-71, in the amount of $500.00 in recognition of his 1971 Outstanding Performance Rating.

On 8-4-71, he celebrated his Thirtieth Anniversary of service in the FBI. The key was presented to him by the Director.

It is noted in March, 1971, he sent a letter to Senator McGovern concerning the attack McGovern made on the Director and the Bureau.

Dear Attorney General:

I am writing as a personal friend of Bill Sullivan and according to the papers Mr Sullivan was paying too much attention to you.

Mr. Sullivan is honest, sincere, smart and a Faithfull Service.

If Mr. Hoover can lock doors, change Keys etc, is not Mr Sullivan entitled to a hearing.

From seeing J. Edgars pictures at the race tracks so often I thought he was a Trainer.

Hope through your influence and your capabilities that you will give Mr Sullivan and in parting I will say he is Honest and Smart. No doubt you are aware of this. May I say Mr Sullivan is 100% administration and has many friends in every state.

J. Edgar must have been guessing the wrong horses. He has tried to demolish Mr Sullivans Character which is impossible. That is Mr Sullivan and he only can destroy and that will never happen.

Hon. John Mitchell
Attorney General
Department of Justice
Washington, D. C.

My dear Attorney General:

It was most disturbing to read the story in today's newspaper of William Sullivan's retirement.

I worked with the FBI from 1958 into 1963, mostly in the Crime Records Division. As you are aware, that Division prepared the Law Enforcement Bulletin, the Uniform Crime Reports; and many of the Director's articles, speeches and letters. The nature of my work required knowledge of how the Bureau functioned, especially at the Seat of Government and, more particularly, those people one could depend upon. Of the many people I have had dealings with, during and since my tenure, few have compared with Mr. Sullivan. I feel sure I am not alone in stating that I had sincerely hoped that, if and when the Director stepped down, Mr. Sullivan would become the new "chief."

It is, in my opinion, futile to suggest a reinstatement of Mr. Sullivan; there was surely good and sufficient reason for his retirement from the position. Be that as it may, this nation cannot afford to be without the services of our man most knowledgeable with respect to domestic communism. Therefore, I urge you to offer him a post in the Department. He could probably move easily onto the staff of either the Senate or House internal security committees, or possibly into the SACB, but I think that these alternatives leave much to be desired. Furthermore, he needs to be where he can have relative access to FBI files and be further removed from political pressures.

Never! H
Prompt, forceful action on your part is the only way I see that this untimely development can be kept out of the political arena.

Respectfully,

b6

Hoover Ousts a Top FBI Aide

Washington, Oct. 2 (NEWS Bureau) — FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover has forced the retirement of the bureau's top domestic intelligence expert, in a dispute over policy matters, including the role of the Communist party in campus unrest, THE NEWS learned today.

William C. Sullivan, 59, one of two assistants to the director and frequently mentioned as a possible successor to the 76-year-old Hoover, could not be reached for comment on his retirement.

An FBI spokesman confirmed that Sullivan "is retiring" and that he is being replaced by Alex Rosen, head of the FBI's General Investigative Division. The spokesman said that Rosen's old post would be filled by Charles Bates, special agent in charge of the Chicago FBI office, and that Bates would be replaced by Roy Mohr, special agent in charge of the Jackson, Miss. office.

A 30-Year Veteran

Although the spokesman declined to comment on reports that Sullivan's retirement was forced, high government sources said that the veteran chief of domestic intelligence operations was placed on the retired list by Hoover even though Sullivan had not submitted a retirement application.

The sources said that Sullivan, a 30-year veteran with the FBI, has not yet decided whether to accept the forced retirement or to fight it by appealing to a higher authority, presumably Attorney General John N. Mitchell of the White House.

Top administration officials said that while Mitchell has high regard for Sullivan, it is doubtful that he would intercede in the case of the man closest to Hoover, aside from Clyde Tolson, 71, the bureau's number two man and a longtime close associate of the FBI chief. In fact, Sullivan was reportedly the only FBI man that Hoover addressed by his first name. It is an open secret in the bureau that Sullivan virtually "hosted" Hoover's several books on communism.

Slipped in '60's

Relations between the two men began slipping during the early 1960s when Sullivan became convinced that the internal threat of communism had receded and that there should be a more moderate approach toward the civil rights movement.

The outspoken domestic intelligence expert believed that unless greater progress was made in combatting the Ku Klux Klan and protecting the rights of Negroes, radical groups like the Black Panthers and the Students for a Democratic Society would find a fertile ground for expansion.

THE NEWS learned that the split developed into an open break last fall when Sullivan said in response to a question at the UPI editors conference at Williamsburg, Va., that the Communist Party played virtually no role in the wave of campus violence.

When Hoover, who had blamed the campus unrest on Communist agitators, learned of this, he reportedly summoned Sullivan into his office and ordered him to refrain from making any more public appearances.

James A. Wechsler

53 HOOVER'S TWILIGHT

J. Edgar Hoover's sudden eviction of William C. Sullivan from his high FBI post after three decades of service has stirred no apparent public furor in Washington. A comparably crude ouster of a veteran civil servant in any other agency would almost surely invite prolonged Congressional and press agitation. In contrast the Sullivan story has swiftly faded after disclosure of the initially bizarre circumstances of Operation Exile.

What happened is that Sullivan, returning to his office from a brief trip to New Hampshire, found his nameplate removed, his telephone disconnected and the lock changed. Shortly thereafter an FBI spokesman informed inquiring reporters that Sullivan had "resigned."

It might have been more accurate to say that he had been declared a non-person.

The relative calm that has greeted the news may in part reflect Sullivan's own disposition not to raise hell. He rendered himself inaccessible after the reports were published and men who know him well believe it consistent with his temperament to avoid loud explosion.

Yet both the fact of his banishment and the way in which the deed was done throw new, revealing light on the internal state of the FBI and the demeanor of its director.

Sullivan has long been known as the only liberal Democrat in the higher echelons of the FBI. He is a man of scholarly interests, a devout Catholic, a respected, earnest figure. One friend said of him that "he might have been a college professor or a priest."

Although his talents were not primarily administrative, there was a time when he was frequently mentioned as a possible successor to Hoover (in a Democratic regime). During much of his tenure at the Bureau he had maintained cordial relations with Hoover and was regarded as a member of the inner circle. The first signs of friction reportedly developed in the 60s when he was said to have expressed the view that the FBI should exhibit more concern about civil rights violations and less preoccupation with the dwindling Communist Party. In December, 1962, for example, speaking at Fordham University, he denounced the "far right" as being "every bit as subversive as the far left" and assailed those who create "false issues." And he also quietly helped to regain citizenship rights for such former Communists as John Gares.

But the episode that seemingly triggered Hoover's decision to treat Sullivan as an expendable occurred last year. Sullivan had been invited to address a meeting of UPI editors; he deferentially suggested to Hoover that the event might be sufficiently important to warrant his own participation, but Hoover authorized Sullivan to speak for the Bureau. In accordance with FBI custom, Sullivan drafted a speech, including quotations from the sayings of director Hoover and cleared it with him.

In a subsequent question-and-answer period, however, Sullivan amplified his belief that the domestic Communist threat was receding and disputed the notion that Moscow's emissaries were chiefly responsible for campus unrest here. He suggested that the drug traffic and organized crime, among other things, deserved a higher priority of national concern—positions that he had privately advanced for some time in urging new FBI approaches. His remarks clearly failed to echo the spirit of Hoover's ancient unaltered texts, and his heresies were sharply noted by the chief.

Then, a few months ago, Hoover created a new "Number 3" FBI post—under himself and his old crony, Clyde Tolson—that in effect downgraded Sullivan. He seemed to be flashing obvious signals of distemper.

In fact the 59-year-old Sullivan represented no clear and present danger to Hoover's rule. He had let it be known to friends some time ago that he was planning to step down in mid-November; his long service had made him clearly eligible for the emoluments of comfortable retirement some time ago. He had purchased a New Hampshire home and his wife is already in residence there; according to friends, he had, in fact been visiting her when Hoover decided to strip his office.

The mystery, of course, is why Hoover chose to make so large a production of Sullivan's ouster instead of allowing a few more weeks to elapse and then giving him a conventional farewell. To veteran Hoover-watchers in the capital the only explanation is the increasing irascibility and insecurity that the FBI chief has been manifesting in his latter years amid the growth of public criticism and the deterioration of morale within the Bureau.

But these considerations would seem to justify some measure of Congressional inquisitiveness about Hoover's role in the Sullivan case and his general fitness for office. By the traditional standards of an FBI check, the director's conduct plainly warrants the description: "Has become highly emotional; judgments and actions reflect growing instability and even more intemperate reactions to real or imagined criticism than earlier in career." One would hardly suggest that his nameplate be stealthily removed from his door and his phone disconnected, but discreetly honorable retirement is plainly overdue.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Many American Veterans, wives and parents of Veterans who lost their lives in World War II, rejoiced over the dismissal of your Nazi Collaborator, a Mr. William C. Sullivan.

During World War II there was a huge group of Irish Nazi Collaborators here in greater Cleveland, who openly supported Adolph Hitler. A Chicago newspaperman wrote a book on their activities, "You and Your Congress, by Torres. The principal leader was a former Irish Congressman Martin Sweeney.

There was not a single case of prosecution by your Office, thanks to your Mr. Sullivan. He even cleared a local Irish Nazi to become a Federal Judge, while hundreds of young men from this Community gave their lives for this Country.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Congratulations on getting rid of a real liberal. I could never understand why you kept Mr. Sullivan, as long as you did.

We have a talk show here in the Dayton area - known as the Brad Clay Show.

I don't think he is a Communist but he certainly doing them an excellent job spewing their line - even to the extent - of selling the people the Corn syrup line of promoting your retirement. Yesterday he made a statement over the air, that Mr Sullivan ghost wrote "Masters of Deceit" for you.

I would so much like to knock this guy down by putting him off the air.

Keep up the good work and I pray that you will

Dear Mr. Hoover,

Congratulations on getting rid of a real liberal. I could never understand why you kept
Mr. Sullivan, as long as you did.

We have a talk show here in the Dayton area known as the Brad Clay Show.

I don't think he is a Communist but he certainly doing them an excellent job spewing their line - even to the extent of selling the people the Com-symp line of promoting young retirement.

2/ yesterday he made a statement over the air, that Mr Sullivan ghost wrote "Masters of Deceit" for you.

I would so much like to knock this guy down by putting him off the air.

Keep up the good work and I pray that you will stay as long as possible.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. President,

Many citizens are distressed by the precipitate resignation of Mr. Sullivan from the F.B.I. Many of us have also had our confidence shaken by the apparent rift between the F.B.I. and the C.I.A.

Isn't the public entitled to some kind of explanation of the above? With every good wish.

The purpose of this memorandum is to recommend no acknowledgment be made of a letter and enclosure addressed to the President by captioned individual, referred to the Bureau and received on October 19th.

suggests to the President that the public is entitled to an explanation of what he terms the "precipitate resignation" of former Assistant to the Director Sullivan and the "rift" between the Bureau and CIA.

Bufiles disclose one prior letter to  in 1950 in reply to his inquiry concerning American Civil Liberties Union. To respond to his letter would necessitate a discussion of internal administrative policies of the FBI and it appears from the tenor of his letter that no such explanation would satisfy him. It is felt, therefore, that no acknowledgment should be made of this letter.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

The reports in the public press in regard to Bill Sullivan seem to be somewhat misleading. I have known Bill for quite a few years and I am aware of his loyalty to you personally and his dedication to the Bureau and its mission.

It's too bad the press media distorts things that effect the life and welfare of men like Bill Sullivan.

[redacted] Director, Office of Public Information in the Department, has telephonically advised that the Attorney General has requested from [redacted] the effective date of former Assistant to the Director Sullivan's retirement.

By letter 10-5-71 Mr. Sullivan requested permission to retire effective 10-6-71. His application for retirement was forwarded to the Civil Service Commission for approval. According to Commission regulations we may not make the effective date of retirements under the liberalized plan for Special Agents (5 U. S. Code, Section 8336 (c)), as in Mr. Sullivan's case, until approval of the retirement is received from the Commission. By communication 10-20-71 the Commission notified us of the approval of Mr. Sullivan's retirement which communication was received 10-21-71. Therefore, in keeping with regular procedures, we have executed SF-50, Notification of Personnel Action, showing the effective date of Mr. Sullivan's retirement as 10-21-71. One copy of SF-50 goes to the Commission, another to Mr. Sullivan, and one is retained in his personnel file. The SF-50 also shows his annuity commenced 10-7-71. In effect he was carried in a leave without pay status from 10-7-71 through 10-21-71.

RECOMMENDATION:

That [redacted] be advised of the foregoing in order that he may so inform the Attorney General in response to the latter's inquiry.

SUBJECT: RESEARCH MATERIAL
MAINTAINED IN RECORDS BRANCH
FOR W. C. SULLIVAN

It was recently determined that there were four file cabinets located in Records Branch space in the Identification Building which contained research-type material being held at request of W. C. Sullivan presumably for his personal use. It consisted primarily of magazines, pamphlets and tracts relating to the Communist Party. Most of the material was very old and consisted of duplicate copies of material gathered by field offices during our early investigation of the Communist Party. The material was used by the Central Research Unit in the preparation of various monographs relating to the Communist Party. Originals or other copies of most of the material in the four cabinets were previously sent to substantive files, and that which was left was sent to Records Branch to hold for Mr. Sullivan.

In line with a prior arrangement made to send certain magazines and publications to Library of Congress, thereby releasing file space for more important material, several copies of magazines such as "Political Affairs", "Masses and Mainstream", "Science and Society", and similar publications which were very old have been sent to Library of Congress. Numerous old duplicate copies of Communist Party pamphlets which were already in Bureau files were destroyed. The remaining material, consisting of miscellaneous pamphlets relating to the Communist Party, and looseleaf notebooks containing typed quotations and miscellaneous statements, has been brought to Research Section where it will be examined by the Section Chief to determine if it should be kept for future reference or destroyed. That which has no obvious value to the Bureau for research purposes will be destroyed. The four cabinets in question have now been made available to Records Branch. None of the material has been or will be made available to Mr. Sullivan.

Is Ethel For McGovern?

By Maxine Cheshire

When Ethel Kennedy was in San Francisco to play tennis for charity last month, she took Sen. George McGovern with her to a small, private dinner party "to meet some people worth knowing."

The widow of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy has not yet come out publicly for her late husband's very close friend in his bid for the presidency. But people who count politically and financially have been made increasingly aware lately that she stands close to McGovern.

The dinner in San Francisco is an example of the way she can be helpful without making a formal endorsement of his candidacy. Another announced candidate, Sen. Fred Harris, and his wife, were in town that same weekend.

But the Harrises didn't have, entre to the moneyed circles who were entertaining Ethel. She opened doors for McGovern to meet people like wealthy magazine publisher John A. Viator, who reportedly contributed to RFE's campaign, and the dinner's host, importer John Bowler.

An aide of McGovern's said yesterday that these were people "she thought he ought to meet." The same aide said that she has been "helping privately" to introduce McGovern to other "potential contributors" at small dinner parties at Hickory Hill.

Ethel was also present recently at a dinner given by the co-chairman of the National Citizens for McGovern, John Douglas, before the opening of McGovern's Montgomery County headquarters.

All this has led to speculation about how involved Ethel intends to get in the McGovern campaign. When she was seen on Capitol Hill, riding in a Senate elevator with McGovern two weeks ago, other Democratic contenders among his colleagues began to make nervous inquiries.

But McGovern adviser Frank Mankiewicz says they can all relax—for the time being, anyway. She wasn't there to talk politics. She was there, he says, to watch her brother-in-law, Sen. Edward M. (Ted) Kennedy, testify on his health bill.

"It's very difficult to imagine her not getting involved in some way once the campaign gets underway," said Mankiewicz. But he doesn't know about actual campaigning.

"That's a lot," he said. "It may be that she will never want to campaign again for anyone."

Potpourri

A former FBI official respected in law enforcement circles took copies of enough records with him when he left to write a book. Now he is looking for a journalist collaborator . . . Presidential adviser Henry Kissinger's 10-year-old son, David, wants to be a cartoonist when he grows up. Whether like Al Capp or Herblock, he hasn't decided . . . Those who frequent P. T. This memorandum has been prepared to record the fact that Mr. Sullivan on his own authority improperly turned over to Mr. Robert Mardian, Assistant Attorney General, Internal Security Division, certain sensitive files with which he had been entrusted. After first denying having done this, he did admit on his last day of service that he had ordered the files delivered to Mardian.

BACKGROUND

At the request in early 1969 of certain officials of The White House, we initiated sensitive investigations of three members of The White House Staff and this later broadened into a total of about 16 such investigations. At the outset Mr. Sullivan was entrusted with the coordination of this project and was entrusted with the safe-keeping of the files. It was thought that Mr. Sullivan handled this project himself, however, it has now been determined that he had delegated retired former Agent Bernard Wells to actually do the processing and disseminating of necessary material.

This project continued until approximately 6/71 and the material was maintained in Mr. Sullivan's Office. We learned on 10/1/71 that the files were possibly in possession of Mr. Mardian and in contact with Mardian on 10/3/71 he said he could not discuss the material on the Attorney General's orders. He also said "I want to assure you there is no problem."

On 10/5/71, Mr. Sullivan was asked where the material was and he said he had sent it back to Domestic Intelligence Division 2 or 3 months earlier. On the afternoon of 10/5/71 he admitted having given Mr. C. D. Brennan a brief case containing the sensitive material with instructions to Brennan to give the brief case to Mardian. He was quite surly during this interview and refused to discuss the matter further, saying that any further information regarding the files would have to be obtained from the Attorney General by the Director.

Mr. Brennan confirmed the brief case story but said he did not know what it contained.

Top FBI Executive, Agent for 30 Years, 'Retired' by Hoover

Special to The Inquirer
And Washington Post

WASHINGTON. — William C. Sullivan, 59, a top FBI administrator and agent for 30 years, is being forced to retire after a series of policy disputes with J. Edgar Hoover.

While Sullivan was on sick leave Friday, his name was removed from his office door and the locks changed. Sullivan, who was once thought to be a likely successor to Hoover, 76, was not officially informed.

The FBI, queried by the Washington Post, said that Sullivan had voluntarily retired, effective next week. An FBI spokesman said that he was being replaced by Alex Rosen, head of the bureau's general investigative division.

Rosen, in turn, was replaced by Charles Bates, special agent in charge of the FBI's Chicago office, the spokesman said.

High Justice Department sources called the FBI response "a lie of the highest Hooverian order." They said that Sullivan has been under intense pressure from Hoover to leave the bureau for months but that as late as 10 P. M. Friday, Sullivan was resisting the pressure and refusing to resign.

The sources said they ex-

WILLIAM C. SULLIVAN
... under pressure

pected Sullivan to decide over the weekend whether to actually turn in his resignation or to openly challenge his one-time benefactor at the risk of his government pension.

Sullivan's ouster was foreshadowed about six weeks ago when Hoover appointed W. Mark Felt over Sullivan into a newly created No. 3 post in the FBI just below the director and associate director Clyde W. Tolson, 71, Hoover's longtime righthand man.

Like assistant director Sullivan's "retirement" Friday, the promotion of Felt was not announced. Rumors of Sullivan's impending ouster reached the civilian officials of the Justice Department last week along with reports that Sullivan's progressive attitude and efforts to modernize the FBI were making Hoover furious.

Dear Sirs:

Recently I read in Time magazine that Mr. William C. Sullivan, Assiatant to the Director of your Bureau, was no longer connected with the Bureau. I phoned your headquarters in Washington and was told that he was not there. On asking I was informed that any mail to him would be forwarded to him, if I sent it to the Bureau.

I therefore enclose a personal letter to Mr. Sullivan, with proper postage. Would you send it to him, please? I appreciate this on your part. If there is any difficulty in so doing, please return this letter to me.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

BY ISADELLE HALL

WASHINGTON (UPI)--THE FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION, COMPLETELY UNDER THE HAND OF DIRECTOR J. EDGAR HOOVER, WAS REPEATEDLY CUT HALF ITS TOP STAFF IN THE PAST FEW MONTHS.

AMONG THOSE OUSTED DURING THE OVERHAUL WAS WILLIAM C. SULLIVAN, WHO WAS CONSIDERED AT LEAST FOR A BRIEF PERIOD BY HOOVER'S HANDPICKED SUCCESSOR. THE BUREAU'S NO. 3 MAN, SULLIVAN, ACCEPTED RETIREMENT AFTER A LONG AND APPARENTLY BITTER FIGHT. SULLIVAN WAS PUSHING FOR CHANGES IN THE FBI OPPOSED BY HOOVER, SOURCES SAID.

THE PROMOTIONS, DEMOTIONS AND RETIREMENTS THAT OCCURRED DURING THE SHAKEUP WERE NOT ANNOUNCED. THEY WERE NOTED ONLY IN THE FBI CREATION ASSOCIATION MAGAZINE, THE INVESTIGATOR. FBI OFFICIALS DECLINED COMMENT ON THE CHANGES.

IN LATE SEPTEMBER, SULLIVAN WAS REPORTED BY THE WASHINGTON POST TO HAVE BEEN LOCKED OUT OF HIS OFFICE. THE FBI ON OCT. 1 SIMPLY ANNOUNCED THAT SULLIVAN HAD RETIRED. SULLIVAN, WHO WAS ASSISTANT TO THE DIRECTOR IN CHARGE OF INVESTIGATIVE OPERATIONS, DECLINED COMMENT.

THE INVESTIGATOR, IN ITS LATEST EDITION, REPORTS THE APPOINTMENT OF ALEX ROSEN, 66, TO SUCCEED SULLIVAN. THE MAGAZINE CARRIED A SMALL PICTURE OF SULLIVAN IN A GROUP OF 20 EMPLOYEES WHO HAD RETIRED.

BEFORE SULLIVAN LEFT HOOVER PROMOTED W. MARK FELT TO HIS NEW POSITION OF ASSISTANT DIRECTOR-DEPUTY ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR. FELT WAS PLACED AHEAD OF SULLIVAN IN THE FBI HIERARCHY.

FELT THUS BECAME NO. 3 MAN IN THE FBI, RATING BEHIND HOOVER AND ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR CLYDE A. TOLSON, 71.

FELT'S APPOINTMENT, WHICH APPARENTLY OCCURRED IN JULY, WAS DISCLOSED IN THE SEPTEMBER EDITION OF THE FBI MAGAZINE. ALSO IN THE SEPTEMBER EDITION WAS THE PROMOTION OF JOSEPH K. WATSON TO SPECIAL AGENT IN CHARGE OF ONE OF THE FBI OFFICES IN NEW YORK CITY. WATSON HAD BEEN ONE OF THE 11 ASSISTANT DIRECTORS.

THE FBI HAD MOVED CHIEF PERSONNEL TO SEVERAL OTHER POSITIONS SINCE JULY, WHEN HOOVER PROMOTED CLYDE A. TOLSON.

(FBI)

WASHINGTON--FBI DIRECTOR J. EDGAR HOOVER HAS QUIETLY REVAMPED ALMOST HALF HIS TOP STAFF IN THE PAST FEW MONTHS. MOST NOTABLE WAS THE OUSTER OF HIS ONE-TIME NUMBER 3 MAN, WILLIAM SULLIVAN, IN A REPORTED POLICY DISPUTE.

THE FBI AS USUAL HAS DECLINED COMMENT ON THE CHANGES. NONE OF THE PROMOTIONS, DEMOTIONS, RETIREMENTS--VOLUNTARY OR OTHERWISE--WAS MADE PUBLIC. THEY WERE NOTED ONLY IN THE FBI RECREATION ASSOCIATION OFFICIAL PUBLICATION, THE INVESTIGATOR.

ACCORDING TO VARIOUS OBSERVERS, SULLIVAN, 56, WHO BRIEFLY FIGURED AS HOOVER'S HEIR APPARENT, WAS PUSHING FOR CHANGES WITHIN THE BUREAU OPPOSED BY THE 76-YEAR-OLD DIRECTOR WHO FORCED HIS RESIGNATION. THE WASHINGTON POST REPORTED SULLIVAN WAS LOCKED OUT OF HIS OFFICE. THREE DAYS LATER ON OCT. 2, THE FBI SAID ONLY THAT HE HAD RETIRED. SULLIVAN DECLINED COMMENT.

THE CURRENT EDITION OF THE INVESTIGATOR, NOTES THE APPOINTMENT OF ALEX ROSEN, 66, TO SUCCEED SULLIVAN AS ASSISTANT TO THE DIRECTOR IN CHARGE OF INVESTIGATIVE OPERATIONS. THE ONLY MENTION OF SULLIVAN IS A SMALL PICTURE INCLUDED IN A GROUP OF 20 EMPLOYEES WHO HAVE RETIRED.

THE HANDWRITING APPEARED ON THE WALL WEEKS EARLIER WHEN HOOVER PROMOTED W. MARK FELT, THE NEW POSITION ASSISTANT DIRECTOR -- DEPUTY ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR SLIDING HIM IN ABOVE SULLIVAN WHO, ALONG WITH JOHN P. MOHR WAS ONE OF TWO MEN WITH THE TITLE ASSISTANT TO THE DIRECTOR.

James J. Kilpatrick

Exit Open For Hoover?

WASHINGTON — A year or so ago, the conservative right wing went into full flap over Mr. Justice Douglas. The object was to impeach the gentleman and, if viewed solely on its merits, the object was splendid. But a few conservative tacticians, wiser than their eager brothers, privately offered some sage advice: Lay off.

The advice proved unavailing, but the point was sound. Whatever else may be said of him, Bill Douglas is a fighter. He would never quit under fire. The same advice might be offered today to professional critics of J. Edgar Hoover. The F.B.I. director ought to retire. If he were left alone for a while, he might do precisely that. But Hoover is tough; he is stubborn; he is proud; and he will die with his boots on before he lets it be said that the likes of Ramsey Clark hounded him out of his office.

Surely these elementary observations must have been pressed upon the scholars, lawyers, bleeding-hearts and weep-easies who convened at Princeton last weekend. Considering the respectable setting and sponsorship, one might have supposed that this "conference on the F.B.I." would exhibit at least the surface aspects of objectivity. Not so. This was a hanging jury. The conferees proposed to hustle old man Hoover to the gallows; they succeeded only in confounding themselves.

The Princeton consistory, according to Duane Lockhard, chairman of the university's department of politics, was sponsored chiefly by an "anonymous New York couple," who put up $20,000. The left-lib Field and New World Foundations threw in $5,000 apiece. A $30,000 kitty emits a loud meow, and 55 cats came clawing.

In the van were members of the self-anointed "Committee for Public Justice," a marshmallow concoction cooked up a year ago by former Attorney General Clark, whose backbone Hoover once compared unfavorably to warm macaroni.

Trailing behind the committee's executive council were a ragtag band of professional Hoover haters — Robert Sherrill of the Nation magazine, Fred J. Cook, I. F. Stone and Walter Pincus. Other participants and paper-readers included a platoon of professors, attorneys, and disgruntled former agents of the F.B.I. This was a hatchet job, done by experts. The "anonymous couple," hiding in ambush, doubtless got their dirty money's worth. But will they get the old man? No, sir, Hoover will not budge.

And this is a pity. There is no man in public life, since the death of Harry Byrd, whom I have held in greater admiration than J. Edgar Hoover. He is the incorruptible head of an incorruptible bureau. To glance through his last annual report, released just a few weeks ago, is to share his pride in those "high standards of professional excellence and personal integrity" that he has exemplified all these years.

Yet there comes a time, all the same, when the swiftest runner outruns his fame, when there is nothing more to be gained and only luster to be lost. Hoover, at 76, has reached this point in his great career. He has won every accolade worth winning, including the enmity of the Princeton jackals. He has given his bureau every last ounce of dedication, leadership and inspiration. In the F.B.I., he has forged a superlative instrument for responsible law enforcement. What else remains?

These have not been happy times lately for the director. Recent months have produced a spate of resignations and forced transfers that have hinted of sagging morale within the bureau. Cartha D. DeLoach, once his No. 3 man, left in June of last year after 28 years with the bureau. The departure last month of William C. Sullivan has caused acute dismay among friends of the F.B.I., for Sullivan, a 30-year veteran, was highly regarded. It has been a painful thing to be forced to take sides.

The director understandably will disdain the voices of the liberal left. But he should know of the increasing concern on the conservative right. We want him to go, when he goes, with trumpets and laurels. He is risking the loss of them now.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I have, on a number of occasions, had a cordial exchange of correspondence with you.

I have not in the past told you much about my background. I will say solely for the purpose of identifying myself a little more clearly that I worked for the federal government more than 40 years following service in the Navy during World War I; I am a member of the Georgia Bar; being an attorney qualified me for legal positions and I retired from the government service as a Chief Member of the Board of Veterans Appeals; I have been a member of The American Legion more than 50 years; I have been a member of the Elks 49 years; a member of the Masons 44 years; I am a member of the Veterans of World War I; I belong to Sigma Delta Kappa Legal Fraternity; other organizations of which I am or have been a member are federal employee and retired employee associations; Veterans of Foreign Wars; State Bar of Georgia, etc.

You, no doubt, have seen the attached column. I concur in all the good things said about you. However, the time of your departure should be left to your own good judgement in which I have the greatest confidence.

With all good wishes, I remain

Sincerely,

LETTER RECEIVED BY THE ATTORNEY GENERAL FROM

CANISIUS COLLEGE, BUFFALO, NEW YORK

Reference is made to your memorandum of November 30th enclosing a letter sent to the Attorney General byCanisius College, Buffalo, New York.

In response to your request, I do not have any suggestions as to how the Department may wish to respond to the communication received from [redacted] since I do not feel it would be proper for me to comment publicly on matters involving the internal administration of this Bureau. As you will recall, however, the Personnel Officer of the FBI replied to your request by telephonically advising you on October 28, 1971, that former Assistant to the Director William C. Sullivan requested permission to retire from the FBI by letter dated October 5, 1971, and that his application for retirement was approved by the Civil Service Commission with his retirement to become effective October 21, 1971.

[redacted] letter to the Attorney General is being returned to you.

Hoover's FBI Crisis

By ROWLAND EVANS and ROBERT NOVAK

WASHINGTON — The forced resignation of the highly respected William C. Sullivan from the Federal Bureau of Investigation has exposed only a tiny corner of one of Washington's most carefully hidden scandals: the deterioration of the FBI as a law enforcement agency.

Sullivan, until recently the FBI's No. 3 man, submitted his resignation last Thursday, just one week after a tense confrontation with Director J. Edgar Hoover. But this is no mere personality dispute. In truth, some of the FBI's most competent officials, particularly in the field offices, are heartsick about what they view as Hoover's incompetent and tyrannical reign. They candidly acknowledge that the fabled FBI is not doing its job today.

With the ruthless self-preservation born of 48 years as grand vizier of the FBI, Hoover has lashed back against in-house critics. The result, hidden from public view, has been a reign of terror. Some respected FBI officials have been demoted or summarily transferred, others reduced to nervous prostration in wholly realistic fear of surveillance by Hoover agents.

ENOUGH OF THIS is known at the White House and Justice Department to redouble the private conviction there that Hoover, 76, should go and go soon. But concern about further undermining President Nixon's standing on the Right has mesmerized the administration.

It is one of Hoover's assets, then, that bitter public debate about him is cast in ideological terms. Because criticism from the Left concentrates on his conservatism rather than his incompetency, conservatives gather about him protectively.

Indeed, popular accounts of differences between Hoover and Sullivan are over-ideologized. Although Hoover was unhappy with Sullivan's factually incontestable thesis that the Communist party, U.S.A. has nothing to do with terrorist groups of the Left, the basic criticism of the director from his own agents and top assistants hits the way he runs the agency.

Their complaint, never yet voiced publicly, goes like this:

Contrary to the myth (accepted even by the Left) that the FBI is a great law enforcement agency and the director its greatest lawman, the bureau has failed to grow with the times. Hoover has ignored new technology, including the computer. Paranoically suspicious, he relies on yes-men within the bureau and prohibits contacts with other government agencies (including the Justice Department itself).

ALTHOUGH THE LEFT views Hoover as an intolerant neo-Fascist, the truth is that he is morbidly sensitive to the merest hint of criticism, particularly in the press, including the bellowing about wire taps. So, the director has severely restricted wire tapping, shackling the FBI's domestic intelligence operations.

From within the FBI, criticisms of Hoover's stewardship are many: successful apprehension of fugitives has been all too infrequent. There is little zeal in going after illegal enemy aliens, and intelligence of their activities has been poor. The pilfering of FBI files at Media, Pa., was a clean case of lax security procedures.

In frustration, some of the FBI's top officials began dealing, behind Hoover's back, directly with the highly conservative chiefs of the Nixon Justice Department. Furious, Hoover struck back with his reign of terror.

In the chaos, some respected FBI agents have taken early retirement.

Thus have Hoover's chief critics inside the FBI been neutralized—forced into retirement, transferred, demoted or frightened into submission. But the process might be the director's undoing. It has, for the first time, broken the iron wall of silence shielding what really goes on inside the FBI. Some of Hoover's shocking deficiencies are now being revealed to the public. More will come.

My dear Senator:

Associate Deputy Attorney General for Legislation

enclosing a column entitled "Hoover's FBI Crisis" by Rowland ~~Evans~~

Although the contents of this column, in my opinion, do not merit the dignity of comment, I can assure you that the assertions regarding a personnel-type "reign of terror" within the FBI are groundless. During my years of service as Director of the FBI, I have come to expect, as almost incidental to the office

IT WAS DISCLOSED IN THE SEPTEMBER EDITION OF THE EMPLOYEES' MAGAZINE ALONG WITH THE PROMTION OF JOSEPH K. PONDER, A SPECIAL AGENT IN CHARGE OF ONE OF THE FBI OFFICIES IN NEW YORK CITY, TO SUCCEED FELT AS ONE OF THE 11 ASSISTANT DIRECTORS.

IN OCTOBER, THE MAGAZINE NOTED THE RETIREMENT OF JAMES H. GALE, AS ASSISTANT DIRECTOR IN CHARGE OF THE SPECIAL INVESTIGATIVE DIVISION AND THE PROMOTION OF WILLIAM B. CLEVELAND, HIS DEPUTY, TO SUCCEED HIM.

THE NOVEMBER EDITION DISCLOSED ROSEN'S PROMOTION AND THE APPOINTMENT OF CHARLES W. BATES, SPECIAL AGENT IN CHARGE OF THE CHICAGO OFFICE, TO SUCCEED HIM AS ASSISTANT DIRECTOR IN CHARGE OF THE GENERAL INVESTIGATIVE DIVISION. BOTH TOOK PLACE IN SEPTEMBER.

IT ALSO NOTED THE THIRD CHANGE SINCE JULY, 1970 IN THE DOMESTIC INTELLIGENCE DIVISION WHICH HAD BEEN HEADED BY SULLIVAN. CHARLES D. BRENNAN WAS NAMED TO SUCCEED SULLIVAN BUT HIS APPOINTMENT LASTED ONLY ABOUT A YEAR.

LAST SEPTEMBER -- THE SAME MONTH THAT SULLIVAN'S FIGHT WITH HOOVER CAME TO A HEAD -- HOOVER DEMOTED BRENNAN TO THE RANK OF INSPECTOR AND MOVED IN EDWARD S. MILLER AS ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF THE DOMESTIC INTELLIGENCE DIVISION WHICH DEALS WITH THE THREAT OF RADICAL MILITANT GROUPS, AMONG OTHER THINGS. MILLER HAD BEEN A SUPERVISOR IN THE INSPECTOR DIVISION FORMERLY HEADED BY FELT.

EXCLUDING TOLSON, WHO HAS REMAINED ON PAST THE MANDATORY RETIREMENT AGE OF 70, HOOVER THUS HAS CHANGED THE PERSONNEL IN SIX OF THE TOP POSITIONS IN THE 20,000-EMPLOYEE FBI.

OF THE ASSISTANT DIRECTORS REMAINING, TWO CELEBRATED THEIR 30TH ANNIVERSARIES THIS YEAR: ASSISTANT DIRECTOR THOMAS E. Mr. Sullivan called me over the weekend and engaged in small talk, indicating he was in Washington trying to sell his house here and that he was getting ready to leave to return to his home in New Hampshire. He then stated the purpose of his call was to advise me that there was in existence a vicious rumor that was generated by Felt and Miller to the effect that he, Sullivan, was writing a book about the Director and the FBI. He stated nothing was further from the truth and that he wanted it understood that he was not writing a book about the Director and the FBI and did not intend to do so. He said he had received requests from five leading publishing companies to write such a book but has respectfully declined in each instance.

I made it plain to him that I considered he would be a damn fool if he considered writing such a book. He assured me he had no intention of doing so. With some further small talk, the conversation was terminated.

The foregoing is submitted for your information.

Selection Of Police Chief Near

By ALEX COFFIN

Mayor Sam Massell said Thursday he "probably" will be ready to name a replacement for Atlanta Police Chief Herbert Jenkins in less than two months.

Under current law, Jenkins must retire by Jan. 7 when he reaches 65 years of age, Associate City Attorney John Dougherty said.

The mayor declined to give any indication who his choice would be. He said he still is considering "at least half a dozen" within the Atlanta Police department and across the country.

Massell's office has received a long list of candidates — including about a dozen suggestions from the Atlanta Commission on Crime and Juvenile Delinquency.

James McGovern, commission director, refused Thursday to name any of the candidates proposed, but did say the commission also has suggested that Massell set up a broad-based citizens' screening panel to give the mayor several qualified persons to choose from.

Massell indicated he won't name such a committee. "I won't shirk my responsibility in naming a chief," he said, "You don't have to be on a committee to advise me."

McGovern Thursday labeled former Secret Service agent Rufus Youngblood, who has been interviewed here, as unqualified. He said Youngblood, who protected then Vice President Lyndon Johnson in Dallas when President John F. Kennedy was assassinated, doesn't have the background of practical knowledge in law enforcement.

McGovern said he would "take no position at this time" on William C. Sullivan, former assistant to FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover, who also has been proposed as Atlanta's next chief.

Dougherty in his announcement clarified reports on whether Jenkins must retire when he reaches 65 Jan. 7 or has the option of remaining until the end of 1972.

Dougherty said the city code is clear—Jenkins must retire Jan. 7. But, the associate city attorney said the code could be changed by aldermanic ordinance.

Another possibility discussed within City Hall Thursday was that an acting chief could be named if the talent search doesn't pay off by Jan. 7.

"This is the most important appointment he (Massell) will make," McGovern said. He said his commission feels the next chief should have a broad academic background with the management capabilities to implement recommendations of the International Association of Chiefs of Police.

He said no members of the present Atlanta Police Department were proposed by his commission, "because we feel the city officials are better qualified to judge these men."

Atlanta Police Supts. Clinton Chafin and Howard Baugh as well as former Police Capt. Ralph Hulse, now head of the City Sanitation Division, have been among local men suggested.

Attorney General John N. Mitchell
U. S. Department of Justice
Washington, D.C. 20530

Dear Mr. Mitchell:

May I first of all congratulate you on your excellent record as Attorney General in President Nixon's administration? I hope that your advice and help will again assist the President in his hoped-for election next year.

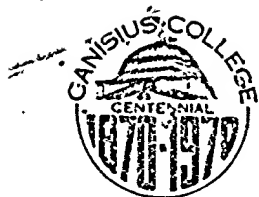

May I also congratulate you on your defense of the Federal Bureau of Investigation during the attacks on it in recent months? Its record has been outstanding, and its men fine examples of excellent service to their country through dedicated service to their obligations. Through the years I have helped in some small way to promote the desire of young men to enter the Bureau, and have followed closely the record of the F.B.I. I have written twice to defend the F.B.I. Last December America magazine, published by my fellow Jesuits, refused to publish a moderate letter I wrote them, when they attacked Mr. J. Edgar Hoover for his part in testimony about the East Coast Conspiracy to Save Lives. Several years ago, while I was finishing doctoral studies in Ottawa, Ontario, I wrote to The Ottawa Journal, to protest allegations made against the F.B.I. by U.S. citizens at the time of the Selma disturbances. Several days later, much to my gratification, I received a note of thanks from Mr. Hoover.

In recent years I have used in class, and for distribution among Buffalo area civic leaders, and among several leaders in the Government of New York State several of Mr. Hoover's articles, e.g. his article in Forham Law Review in Dec., 1969, on the S.D.S. I have also used some of the public speeches by Mr. William C. Sullivan, then Assistant Director of the F.B.I.. The people to whom I have given these sources have been very much impressed with the accuracy, the fairness, the balance of these sources, e.g. Mr. Sullivan's speech "Extremism in the Churches."

On reading the article in Time magazine several weeks ago, following the article in the Washington Post, I was stunned. The article concerned differences between Mr. Hoover and Mr. Sullivan, and the forced resignation of Mr. Sullivan. I refused to believe it at first. I then phoned the F.B.I.

headquarters in Washington from Buffalo here, and found out that Mr. Sullivan was not there and apparently would not be. When I asked if letters to him would be forwarded the woman on the switchboard said they would be. If the Time article were correct I was even more astounded because of a cordial note I had received from Mr. Hoover some months ago, giving me Mr. Sullivan's best, soon after Mr. Sullivan's promotion to the post of Assistant to the Director. May I also add that I found Mr. Sullivan, in his correspondence with me about my duplicating his speeches for the above-mentioned purposes, and in his writings, always to be completely dedicated to the F.B.I. and to Mr. Hoover, as well as to the best our country has to offer (which is the best in the world, I believe.)

The preceding remarks, Mr. Mitchell, have been, I hope, a sufficiently succinct and complete explanation of a request I would like to make to you. I would like to ask you, if you think it wise, to refute the articles in Time, Washington Post, etc. about the recent differences between Mr. Hoover and Mr. Sullivan. May I also ask you to ensure that justice is done in this particular case, if indeed the magazine accounts are correct? I hate to see the competence, fairness, or loyalty of either Mr. Hoover or Mr. Sullivan attacked. Nor do I wish to see the years of dedicated, competent service to the U.S.A. of Mr. Sullivan terminated in this way, if such be the case.

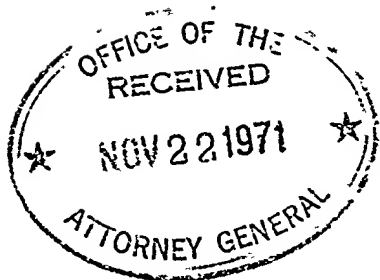

Thank you for your attention to this latter. I would appreciate a short note of response from your office, if possible.

b6

Sincerely yours.

The purpose of this memorandum is to recommend handling of Departmental request for suggestions to be used in replying to a letter received by the Attorney General from [redacted] Canisius College, Buffalo, New York, regarding the retirement of former Assistant to the Director William C. Sullivan.

Briefly, by letter dated 11-9-71, [redacted] wrote the Attorney General and, after complimenting the Attorney General and the Bureau, expressed dismay over articles which appeared in "Time" and "The Washington Post" regarding Sullivan's retirement from the FBI. [redacted] refers to correspondence received from both the Director and Sullivan in the past and states in his correspondence with Sullivan he has found him to be completely dedicated to the FBI and Mr. Hoover. [redacted] thereafter gets to the point of his letter, which is to request the Attorney General to refute the articles which appeared in "Time" and "The Washington Post" regarding the "recent difficulties between Mr. Hoover and Mr. Sullivan." He also states, "May I also ask you to ensure that justice is done in this particular case, if indeed the magazine accounts are correct?" [redacted] requested a short note of response from the Attorney General.

By memorandum 11-30-71, [redacted] of the Department furnished [redacted] letter to the Bureau; advised the Attorney General would like to respond; and requested suggestions or a draft letter from the Bureau as a basis for a reply by the Attorney General.

Bufiles disclose prior cordial correspondence with [redacted]. He has been thanked by letters over the Director's signature for his support of the Bureau in the past. Bufiles also disclose [redacted] was described by Sullivan in 1971 as a good contact whom he has known for some years.

RE: REQUEST FROM DEPARTMENT

It would appear from [ ] letter to the Attorney General that he is, in effect, seeking information regarding the internal administrative operations of the Bureau and is attempting to gain this information through the Department. The Bureau has not previously made any public statements concerning Sullivan's retirement and it would not appear we should do so at this time; however, in response to a telephonic request from [ ] on 10-27-71, he was advised that Sullivan requested permission to retire by letter of 10-5-71, and that his application for retirement was approved by the Civil Service Commission to become effective 10-21-71. <sup>b6</sup>

It is suggested that [ ] be advised that the Bureau has no suggestions to offer regarding a response to [ ] letter since the Director does not feel it proper to comment publicly on matters involving the internal administration of the FBI and that [ ] again be furnished information concerning Sullivan's request for retirement as set forth above.

You will recall that I indicated that Mr. Sullivan was scheduled to speak before a group of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce today at 3:00 p. m. in the conference room of a prominent Atlanta law firm.

SAC Conroy of the Atlanta Division called and stated that Sullivan was not speaking to the group today, the reason being given that he is ill. The meeting has been postponed until sometime in January 1972. The conference room being used is in the offices of the law firm of King and Spaulding, a prominent, big law firm in Atlanta. The group in the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce that will be hearing Sullivan is known as "Leadership Atlanta."

Mr. Conroy said he would follow and advise the Bureau when and if Sullivan does make an appearance in Atlanta.

SAC Leo Conroy of the Atlanta Division called and said he had just learned that Sullivan would be in Atlanta Friday afternoon, December 10, 1971, at 3:00 p. m. to make a speech. Sullivan was invited by a group in the local Chamber of Commerce, the speech to be given in the conference room of a prominent law firm in Atlanta. The group usually listens to speeches concerning urban problems.

Mr. Conroy said he had no idea what Sullivan would talk about but that he had arrangements to be advised of the contents of the speech and he would advise the Bureau when he learns what Sullivan had to talk about. Since the speech is being held in the conference room of a law firm it will not be given before a very large group. Conroy said he did not know exactly the size of the group but he guessed it would not be much bigger than 25 or 30 individuals.

The foregoing is submitted for your information.

SAC Roy Moore, Chicago, called me to advise he had just received a call from [redacted] is an SAC Contact of the Chicago Office and has been personally acquainted with Bureau officials for a number of years. He has been on several committees at the White House and has done considerable work in the field of anti-communism.

[redacted] told Moore he had called Sullivan to wish him a Happy New Year. In the conversation [redacted] asked Sullivan what he was doing since he left the Bureau. Sullivan said that he was angry at first about leaving, but had had time to think. Sullivan then said that he did not intend to "rock the boat"; that he was not going to write any articles; that his only desire was to get into some kind of work that would allow him to fight communism. Sullivan also commented that the Bureau had been good to him over the years and he was not going to "make any waves."

Ex-FBI Man Hits 'Fossil' Bureaucracy

BY JACK NELSON
Times Staff Writer

WASHINGTON — William C. Sullivan, an FBI man for 30 years and a high-ranking official when he was forced out last September, has broken his three-month silence to criticize "fossilized bureaucratic traditions and obsolete policies."

The criticism, made in announcing that he had accepted a post with an insurance investigative agency, was Sullivan's first public comment since FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover forced his retirement at age 59.

Sullivan's appointment as assistant director of the Insurance Crime Prevention Institute was announced by Director James F. Ahern, who released a statement quoting Sullivan as saying:

"It is both interesting and challenging to be associated with a new enterprise which does not suffer from fossilized bureaucratic traditions and obsolete policies. It's stimulating to realize that at ICPI the stress is on original thinking, experimentation and progressive procedures with the measurement of success a practical results. ICPI's newness brings willingness to think in terms of change and flexibility as a means of achieving superior results."

'Gray Predominates'

Sullivan also was quoted as saying that, during his years with the FBI, "I saw that gray was a predominant color in the pursuit of right and wrong, and decision-making required greater understanding. I came to realize how infinitely complex human relations really are."

Sullivan was not available for further comment. He has avoided newsmen since his retirement.

As an assistant to the director and No. 3 man in the FBI, Sullivan at one time was considered to be Hoover's heir apparent. But disagreements between the two over policy matters, especially Sullivan's outspoken view that the domestic threat of communism had faded, caused Hoover to downgrade him and finally announce he had retired. Sullivan applied for retirement a week after the announcement.

At age 77 Hoover is seven years past mandatory retirement age. He recently received assurances from President Nixon, however, that an executive order exempting him from retirement, first issued by President Lyndon B. Johnson, will remain in effect.

Critic on Staff

Sullivan joins a 60-man staff at ICPI that includes four other ex-FBI men. They include former agent Jack Shaw, who was pressured into resigning in 1970 after Hoover discovered he had written a letter to a professor both criticizing and praising the FBI but agreeing with critics that a Hoover "personality cult" stymied change within the FBI. Shaw subsequently won an out-of-court settlement ($13,000 in back pay and removal of prejudicial remarks from his personnel records) of a federal suit against Hoover and the FBI.

Ahern, a former New Haven police chief who also has criticized the FBI for following outmoded practices, became the first director of ICPI when the insurance industry founded it a year ago to combat an increase in insurance fraud.

Retired FBI Aide Likes New Job

WESTPORT, Conn. (UPI)—William C. Sullivan, the former assistant FBI director who was retired last year when he fell into disfavor with J. Edgar Hoover, has been named to a key post in the Insurance Crime Prevention Institute.

"It is both interesting and challenging to be associated with a new enterprise which does not suffer from fossilized bureaucratic traditions and obsolete policies," Sullivan said.

Sullivan, 59, is to be an assistant to James F. Ahern, director of the institute.

SULLIVAN 1-10 NX

WESTPORT, CONN. (UPI)--FORMER FBI ASSISTANT DIRECTOR WILLIAM C. SULLIVAN HAS JOINED A NEW ORGANIZATION WHICH HE SAID "DOES NOT SUFFER FROM FOSSILIZED BUREAUCRATIC TRADITIONS AND OBSOLETE POLICIES."

SULLIVAN, 59, WAS NAMED SUNDAY AS ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF THE INSURANCE CRIME PREVENTION INSTITUTE, AN ORGANIZATION FOUNDED A YEAR AGO TO COMBAT INSURANCE FRAUD. ITS DIRECTOR IS JAMES F. AHERN, A 1971 MEMBER OF THE PRESIDENT'S COMMISSION ON CAMPUS UNREST AND FORMER NEW HAVEN POLICE CHIEF.

"IT'S STIMULATING TO REALIZE THAT AT THE INSTITUTE THE STRESS IS ON ORIGINAL THINKING, EXPERIMENTATION AND PROGRESSIVE PROCEDURES, WITH THE MEASUREMENT OF SUCCESS A PRACTICAL ONE -- RESULTS," SULLIVAN SAID. "THE INSTITUTE'S NEWNESS GUARANTEES WILLINGNESS TO THINK IN TERMS OF CHANGE AND FLEXIBILITY AS A MEANS OF ACHIEVING SUPERIOR RESULTS."

SULLIVAN JOINED THE FBI 30 YEARS AGO AND WAS ONCE CONSIDERED A POSSIBLE SUCCESSOR TO J. EDGAR HOOVER BEFORE HE WAS FORCED TO RETIRE IN AN FBI SHAKUP LAST YEAR.

ON HIS YEARS WITH THE FBI, SULLIVAN SAID, "I SAW THAT GRAY WAS A PREDOMINATING COLOR IN THE PURSUIT OF RIGHT AND WRONG, AND THAT DECISION-MAKING REQUIRED GREATER UNDERSTANDING. I CAME TO REALIZE HOW INFINITELY COMPLEX HUMAN RELATIONS REALLY ARE."

"MR. SULLIVAN WILL REPORT DIRECTLY TO ME," SAID AHERN, A MEMBER OF THE SECURITY STAFF FOR THE UPCOMING DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION IN MIAMI.

AHERN SAID SULLIVAN'S RESPONSIBILITIES WILL INCLUDE SUPERVISING ALL REGIONAL DIRECTORS, REVIEWING CASE PROGRESS AND EVALUATING AND RECRUITING PERSONNEL. IN ADDITION, HE WILL JOIN AHERN IN ACTING AS THE INSTITUTE'S LIAISON WITH PROSECUTORS AND OTHER HIGH LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICIALS."

BEFORE SULLIVAN WAS NAMED ASSISTANT TO HOOVER, HE DIRECTED ALL INTELLIGENCE COUNTER ESPIONAGE AND INTERNAL SECURITY OPERATIONS OF THE FBI.

ALTHOUGH HE THINKS PROGRESS IS BEING MADE IN THE FIGHT AGAINST STREET CRIME, HOOVER SAID "THE CURRENT CRIME PROBLEM DEVELOPED OVER A LONG PERIOD OF MANY YEARS, AND IT MAY TAKE AN EQUALLY LONG TIME TO BRING LAWLESSNESS UNDER CONTROL."

"CITIZENS MUST LEARN THAT BEING A PASSIVE ALLY TO CRIME -- THAT IS, LOOKING THE OTHER WAY WHEN OFFENSES ARE COMMITTED AND PATRONIZING CRIMINAL ENTERPRISES -- WILL ONLY CONTINUE TO STRENGTHEN THE LAWLESS ELEMENT."

"IT (THE PUBLIC) MUST ALSO BE MILITANT AGAINST THOSE WHO CONTRIBUTE TO CRIMINALITY TO BREATHING THE LAW WITH DISDAIN."

HOOVER AGREES THE CRIMINAL JUSTICE SYSTEM MUST BE OVERHAULED BUT STRESSED THAT THE CONSTITUTIONAL GUARANTEE OF THE 4TH AMENDMENT AGAINST UNREASONABLE SEARCH AND SEIZURE "MUST ALSO BE UNDERSTOOD TO APPLY EQUALLY TO PROTECTION FROM CRIMINAL ATTACK."

"YES, WE HAVE TIGHT CONTROLS AND FIRM DISCIPLINE IN THE FBI," HE TOLD UPI.

"THOSE THAT ARGUE THESE ORGANIZATIONAL REINS SHOULD BE RELAXED FAIL TO UNDERSTAND THE NATURE OF FBI RESPONSIBILITIES AND HOW LITTLE ROOM THEY LEAVE FOR ERROR.

"ANYONE WHO MAINTAINS THAT 'OLD-FASHIONED METHODS' PREVAIL IN THE FBI SIMPLY IS EXPOSING HIS IGNORANCE OF THE DAY-TO-DAY OPERATION OF THIS BUREAU AS WELL AS ITS IMPACT ON THE HISTORY OF MODERN UNITED STATES LAW ENFORCEMENT," HE SAID.

HOOVER HAS LONG BEEN CRITICIZED FOR HIS RECORD ON HIRING OF MINORITIES. HE HAS BEEN SUED BY TWO WOMEN SEEKING COURT ORDERS FORCING HIM TO RELAX HIS RULE AGAINST FEMALE AGENTS.

"OF APPROXIMATELY 8,500 SPECIAL AGENTS," HE SAID, "THE FBI CURRENTLY HAS 135 FROM MINORITY GROUPS CONSISTING OF BLACKS, AMERICAN INDIANS, ORIENTALS AND THOSE WITH SPANISH SURNAMES."

WHILE NOTHING WOULD PLEASE HIM MORE THAN TO INCREASE THE MINORITY REPRESENTATION, HOOVER DECLARED, "I WILL NOT RELAX THE HIGH QUALIFICATIONS THE FBI HAS TRADITIONALLY DEMANDED OF ITS SPECIAL AGENT APPLICANTS SIMPLY TO PLAY A NUMBERS GAME WITH THE VERY IMPORTANT ISSUE OF MINORITY EMPLOYMENT."

"TO DO SO," HE SAID, "WOULD ONLY SLUR THOSE WHO SEEK TRUE EQUALITY, WEAKEN FBI EFFICIENCY AND MORALE, AND DESTROY PUBLIC CONFIDENCE IN OUR STANDARDS."

HOOVER SAID THE QUESTION OF WOMEN HAD BEEN GIVEN "THE MOST CAREFUL CONSIDERATION," BUT HE SAID "IT IS OUR CONCLUSION IN THE FBI THAT WE MUST USE ONLY MEN IN THE POSITION OF SPECIAL AGENT."

WHILE HOOVER IS ADAMANT ABOUT FEMALE AGENTS, IT WAS RECENTLY DISCLOSED THAT HIS OWN PERSONAL SECRETARY -- WHO HAS THE TITLE OF EXECUTIVE ASSISTANT -- IS ONE OF THE THREE HIGHEST PAID WOMEN IN THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT AND RANKS AMONG THE HIGHEST IN FEDERAL EMPLOYMENT.

MISS HELEN GANDY, AT AGE 74 JUST THREE YEARS YOUNGER THAN HER BOSS, HAS ALMOST AS MUCH TENURE. SHE BEGAN WORK AT THE DEPARTMENT MORE THAN 53 YEARS AGO, ON MARCH 25, 1918.

HOOVER JOINED THE DEPARTMENT JULY 26, 1917, AND BECAME DIRECTOR OF THE FBI'S PREDECESSOR AGENCY -- THE BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION -- ON MAY 10, 1924.

ALSO IN HOOVER'S OFFICE IS HIS LIFELONG FRIEND AND ASSISTANT, ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR CLYDE A. TOLSON, THE NO. 2 MAN AT THE FBI, WHO DESPITE A SERIOUS ILLNESS IS SERVING PAST HIS 70TH BIRTHDAY AT HOOVER'S PLEASURE. HE WILL BE 72 IN MAY.

In a ticker story sent over UPI by the above-captioned individual for use on December 26th or thereafter,  states that there have been changes in 6 of the 13 top posts in the FBI hierarchy recently and "a seventh is imminent." Mr. Hoover has inquired, "Who is this? H."

While it cannot be positively stated who  is apparently referring to, it would appear that she is making reference to Assistant Director William S. Tavel whose retirement will be effective at close of business 12/31/71 and who will be succeeded by Frank W. Waikart effective 1/1/72.

Dear Mr. Gray,

My visit at your office and the subsequent luncheon were both very enjoyable. Thank you.

It all conjured up for me many fine memories and reminded me of the lines of the Australian poet John O'Brien: Marmfeldt "Fond memories linger about a gladness that is over while a dreamer in the silence gently rakes the ashes of the past."

Man Forced by Hoover to Retire May Get Post

BY RONALD J. OSTROW
Times Staff Writer

WASHINGTON — William C. Sullivan, former No. 3 man at the FBI who was forced out of the bureau by the late FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover, is considering rejoining the Justice Department, it was learned Monday.

Sullivan, 60, who was widely considered heir apparent to Hoover until a policy dispute caused him to retire last September, is in line to direct a newly created unit for conducting narcotics intelligence.

Creation of the unit is expected to be the first step in a series of moves setting up a new super drug agency combining present prevention, enforcement and rehabilitation activities in one agency.

Sullivan's discussions with Justice Department officials about rejoining the government came after an exchange of several letters with Robert C. Mardian, former assistant attorney general for internal security, who is now on the staff of the Committee to Reelect the President.

Talks Confirmed

Neither Sullivan nor Mardian could be reached for comment, but Administration sources confirmed the discussions.

These sources said Mardian had encouraged Sullivan to stand fast on his policy dispute with Mr. Hoover, believing that former Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell would intervene and prevent the former FBI director from forcing Sullivan out. However, Mitchell, despite his high regard for Sullivan, declined to get involved.

Sullivan now is assistant director of the Insurance Crime Prevention Institute in New Haven, Conn.

Re St. Louis letter 3/20/72 in which it was advised that Mr. WILLIAM C. SULLIVAN would speak to captioned group at a luncheon meeting on 5/16/72.

Chief JAMES P. DAMOS (NA), University City, Mo. Police Department, is the President of captioned organization. On 3/27/72, Chief DAMOS advised me that SULLIVAN had been invited to speak to the above group by [redacted] who has been instrumental in organizing captioned organization. [redacted] is Law Enforcement Coordinator for the Extension Division, University of Missouri, at St. Louis. He is well known to the Bureau because of his past criticism, and no contact is had with him in this area.

Chief DAMOS stated that [redacted] had told him among others that SULLIVAN was to appear at a two-day training symposium conducted by the University of Missouri at St. Louis which will pertain to the policing and public safety of parks and recreation areas. [redacted] suggested that since SULLIVAN would be in St. Louis for that particular meeting, that he be invited to speak to the Law Enforcement Association on Professional Standards and Ethical Practice. DAMOS made it crystal-clear that he had nothing to do with this invitation. He also made it clear that should SULLIVAN voice any criticism of the Director and/or the FBI, DAMOS would certainly defend the Director and the Bureau and ask such pointed questions as why SULLIVAN voiced no criticism of the BUREAU prior to his retirement.

Chief DAMOS is very loyal to the FBI and the Director, and I am certain that he will take any action necessary to stem any criticism by SULLIVAN.

The Bureau will be kept advised of any further developments.

FBI Crime Pursuit 'Grey'

WESTPORT, CONN.

William C. Sullivan, once a possible successor to FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover, believes that grey is the color in the pursuit of right and wrong.

Sullivan, 59, was unable to abide by what he called the "fossilized bureaucratic traditions and obsolete policies" of the crime fighting organizations he served for nearly a generation.

The one-time FBI agent who rose to Assistant Director, was sent into early retirement last year in a shakeup of Hoover's organization.

Now, Sullivan has been named Assistant Director of the Insurance Crime Prevention Institute, a Connecticut-based organization set up to combat fraud in the industry.

Heading the institute is James F. Ahern, a 1971 member of the President's Commission on Campus Unrest and a former New Haven Police Chief.

"I saw that grey was the predominating color in the pursuit of right and wrong and that decision making required greater understanding," Sullivan said of his 30 years experience in the FBI.

"I came to realize how infinitely complex human relations really are."

The insurance fraud investigating group is emphasizing "original thinking, experimentation and progressive procedures," he said.

"The measurement of success is a practical one — results," he said.

"The institute's newness guarantees willingness to think in terms of change and flexibility as a means of achieving superior results."

Sullivan, a 1936 graduate of American University, is a university and college lecturer on national security and a prolific writer of articles.

The Insurance Crime Prevention Institute, has field offices in 10 American cities.

Based in Philadelphia is John F. Shaw, another victim of an internal controversy in the FBI.

Shaw criticized the "cult of personality" in the FBI in a paper he presented to the John Jay School of Criminal Justice in Brooklyn, N.Y.

The paper ended up in FBI headquarters in Washington.

Shaw, who was transferred to Butte, Mont., and later left the FBI, was instrumental in breaking an insurance fraud case in the Philadelphia area.

Before Sullivan became Hoover's assistant, he directed all intelligence counter-espionage and internal security operations for the FBI.

"Most of his additional duties were of a high priority, strictly confidential nature," the insurance institute said.

Ahern, a member of the security staff for the 1972 Democratic National Convention, said Sullivan will supervise regional directors and act as liaison with law enforcement officials.

The Personnel Operations Section, Department of Justice Personnel Office, has made an expedite request for the personnel folder of Former Assistant to the Director William C. Sullivan advising that Mr. Sullivan had been appointed to the position of Director, Office of Narcotics Intelligence on 8-7-72.

As you know, the Bureau does not maintain a separate personnel folder and all forms required for inclusion in the official personnel folder are maintained in our personnel files. When we receive a request for an official personnel folder we go through the personnel file, remove the items required for inclusion in the personnel folder, make up the folder at that time and forward it to the requesting agency. Items which go into the folder are such things as fanfolds (Notification of Personnel Action), outstanding and unsatisfactory performance ratings, within-grade increase fanfolds, health benefits forms, incentive award letters (unless confidential), Personal History Statement, sick leave record form, and the like.

NOTICE TO EMPLOYEE

KEEP THIS DOCUMENT FOR YOUR RECORDS. IT IS YOUR COPY OF THE OFFICIAL RECORD OF A PERSONNEL ACTION AFFECTING YOUR EMPLOYMENT. PROMPTLY CALL ANY ERROR TO THE ATTENTION OF YOUR SUPERVISOR OR YOUR PERSONNEL OFFICE.

I. Conditions Pertinent To All Types of Personnel Action

The personnel action identified on the face of this form is subject to all applicable laws, rules, and regulations governing Federal employment and may be subject to investigation and approval by the Civil Service Commission. The action may be corrected or canceled if not in accordance with all legal requirements, or if based upon your misrepresentation or fraud.

(c) In addition, the grade of the position to which you are officially assigned may be reviewed and corrected by your agency personnel office, or by the Civil Service Commission.

Your performance rating upon entrance into a new position is "satisfactory" unless or until you are notified otherwise.

Items 9 and 10 show the common types of payroll deductions; "FGLI" for Federal Employees Group Life Insurance, "CS" for Civil Service Retirement, "FICA" for Social Security, and "FS" for Foreign Service. Additional deductions may be made under the Federal Employees Health Benefit program, and for income taxes, bonds, and other purposes authorized by law.

II. Information About Appointments

Appointments to positions in the competitive service: The Civil Service Act places most positions in the "competitive service." The Civil Service Commission sets qualification requirements and controls recruitment for such positions. As a general rule, persons selected from civil service registers to fill continuing jobs in the competitive service are given career-conditional appointments. Such appointments are secured through direct competition with other members of the general public seeking similar work in Government agencies, and permit qualified employees to be assigned without further competitive examination to other jobs in the competitive service. Career-conditional appointments become career appointments upon completion of 3 years of substantially continuous creditable service.

The first year following a nontemporary competitive appointment generally is a probationary period, during which period an appointee must demonstrate his full competence and fitness for Federal employment. Reinstatements are also subject to a probationary period unless one was previously completed. Transfers, promotions, charges to lower grade, and reassignments during a probationary period are subject to completion of probation.

Temporary appointments do not confer a civil service status and do not lead to a career or career conditional appointment without some further examination or qualification. Limited temporary appointments are made when there is no continuing need for a person's service, regardless of the manner in which he qualified for appointment; acceptance of such appointment will not remove a person's name from a civil service register on which he may later be reached for career-conditional appointment.

Appointments to positions in the excepted service. Excepted appointments are made to positions which are excepted from the competitive service by law or other special authority. Generally the employing agency sets qualification requirements and conducts recruitment for such positions. Such appointments do not confer a competitive civil service status or eligibility for movement to jobs in the competitive service; they may be made without restrictions on tenure, with a conditional or indefinite limitation, or with a definite time limitation. A trial period may be required at the discretion of the employing office.

III. Information About Tenure Groups

Employees are ranked in tenure groups according to the nature of their appointment, those with unrestricted tenure are placed in Group I, those serving under conditional appointments which automatically lead to full tenure after a prescribed time and without further qualification are placed in Group II, and those serving under temporary or indefinite appointments not limited to an exact time or date are placed in Group III. Within each tenure group, ranking is determined by veteran preference, performance rating, and total Federal service. If it should become necessary to reduce force, employees are selected for separation or change to lower grade according to this general ranking. Employees serving under competitive appointments and those serving under excepted appointments are ranked separately for reduction in force purposes.

IV. Information About Your Status After Separation

If you are separated or placed in an unpaid status for an extended period, your employing agency will furnish you with Standard Form 8 explaining your rights for unemployment insurance benefits. If you were covered by the civil service retirement system or Federal employees' group life insurance, you have previously been furnished certificates describing these programs; you can refer to such certificates for information regarding your rights and possible benefits after separation.

If you are separated from a career or career conditional appointment, you may have reinstatement eligibility and can apply directly to any Federal activity and may be employed without further competitive examination; if you are a nonveteran and you are separated from a career-conditional appointment your eligibility for reinstatement is generally limited to 3 years from the date of separation. If you are separated from a temporary or excepted appointment, you have no reinstatement privileges based upon such service.

You will be given any lump sum payment that may be due you for annual leave at the time of separation. Refund of an appropriate portion of this payment will be required if you are reemployed in a Federal agency in a position under the same leave system during the period covered by such payment.

V. Availability of Further Information

Consult your supervisor if you have questions about the above statements or the entries on the front of this form, or about other matters concerning your employment. This is particularly important on questions involving granting of leave, assignment of duties, and hours of work which are generally under his control. If your questions are technical, your supervisor may refer you to your personnel office, which will have copies of controlling civil service regulations, as well as your individual records, and so can best explain how they apply in your case.

MEMORANDUM

MR. WILLIAM C. SULLIVAN

A character and fitness investigation including an appropriate security check was completed by the FBI on July 3, 1941. No pertinent derogatory information regarding this employee was disclosed by this investigation, which was of the type later contemplated by Executive Order 10450. The employee was cleared for access to information of all classifications as required by the duties to which assigned.

Sullivan to Rejoin Justice

By JEREMIAH O'LEARY
Star-News Staff Writer

William C. Sullivan, who was forced to retire last October as a top official of the FBI after a feud with the late J. Edgar Hoover, will soon be named to a new Justice Department post as coordinator of all narcotics intelligence.

He will be appointed by Atty. Gen. Richard Kleindienst as a special assistant with wide-ranging authority to act as the clearing house for all narcotics intelligence assembled by all agencies of the U. S. government, officials said in confirming published reports.

Sullivan, 60, will create a focal point for drug intelligence that has never existed before and which some officials said has long been needed.

He will set up a national narcotics system with information drawn from the Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the Central Intelligence Agency, the armed forces, the State Department and the Office of Drug Abuse Enforcement in the Justice Department.

His mandate, according to government sources, will be to coordinate all foreign and domestic intelligence on the narcotics traffic and to disseminate information from his files to agencies that require it.

Nixon administration sources said the position will not make Sullivan a "czar" over Myles J. Ambrose, the attorney general's special assistant for enforcement of drug laws, or John E. Ingersoll, who heads BNDD.

Sullivan has a reputation as both a scholar and an intelligence analyst. For many years, he was the FBI's acknowledged expert on subversion. It was this expertise that led to his collision of wills with Hoover that led to his abrupt departure from the FBI after 30 years of service.

Basically, Sullivan disagreed with Hoover about the threat of domestic communism. Hoover until his death regarded the communists as the foremost enemy of the nation while Sullivan believed the newer and more radical groups such as the SDS and the Black Panthers were the primary enemy.

Insiders said Sullivan and Hoover began exchanging sarcastic and sometimes fiery memoranda. Sullivan also wanted to modernize FBI investigative techniques and collided head-on with Hoover's implacable will on that front, too.

WILLIAM C. SULLIVAN

The clash came in late September, and resulted in Hoover taking action on a weekend, when Sullivan was on leave, to change the locks on his office door and, also, to have Sullivan's name removed from the entranceway.

Sullivan had been moved up to the Number Three spot in the FBI in July, 1971, replacing Assistant to the Director Cartha D. DeLoach.

But Sullivan had many friends in the Justice Depart-

A former high-ranking FBI official who was forced to retire after a feud with J. Edgar Hoover has rejoined the Justice Department as coordinator of all narcotics intelligence.

William C. Sullivan, 60, who spent 30 years in the FBI and was once viewed as a likely successor to Hoover, left the investigative agency last October after the FBI director locked him out of his office.

Attorney General Richard G. Kleindienst announced yesterday that Sullivan has been appointed director of the newly created National Narcotics Intelligence Center in the Justice Department.

At 10:50 a.m. today, Mrs. [redacted] Secretary to [redacted] Director of Security Office, Internal Security Division, Department of Justice, telephonically advised that Mr. [redacted] had instructed her to request a FBI name check on William C. Sullivan, who is now the Director, Office of National Narcotics Intelligence of the Department. Mrs. [redacted] said that Mr. Sullivan had a break of several months between his retirement from the FBI and employment by the Department and Mr. [redacted] desired a name check in connection with the clearance being granted Mr. Sullivan by the Department. Mrs. [redacted] said she understood that in the absence of any derogatory information in our files subsequent to Mr. Sullivan's retirement, the name check would be a summary of Mr. Sullivan's employment history in the FBI.

RECOMMENDATION:

That this be referred to the Administrative Division for an appropriate personnel write-up.

What's News

Four Veterans Against the War who refused to answer a grand jury's questions about alleged plans for violence at the political conventions were ordered back to jail. The Vietnam veterans are to be held for contempt until they testify before the panel or the grand jury term ends, probably around year-end. The order came at federal court in Tallahassee, Fla.

The gun control law would be eased if action taken by the Senate passes the House. The upper chamber voted to repeal a part of the 1968 law requiring merchants to keep records of buyers of .22 caliber ammunition. It also voted to make a separate crime of use of a gun in committing a felony. Debate continued on a bill to bar production and sale of cheap pistols.

The Justice Department hired a man, J. Edgar Hoover, fired from the FBI last year to head the department's new National Narcotics Intelligence Center. Appointment of William Sullivan, who spent 30 years at the FBI and was once seen as Hoover's probable successor, was announced by the Attorney General.

We have received a letter from Mr. [redacted] inquiring whether William C. Sullivan was "dismissed from a position with the FBI" by the late Mr. Hoover, when the dismissal occurred, and the reason for same.

According to information in Bureau files, [redacted] addressed a letter to us in October, 1967, enclosing a news item from a Philadelphia newspaper on an organization which he felt was worthy of our attention. In the letter [redacted] indicated he would appreciate receiving our comments on the organization. By return communication [redacted] was thanked for his interest and advised that it was not possible to furnish him any information since data contained in our files must be maintained as confidential. Assistant Special Agent in Charge Theodore L. Gunderson of the Philadelphia Office advised on 9/22/72 that a review of files of the Philadelphia Office revealed that [redacted] was on the mailing list of "The Worker," an east coast communist newspaper, in April, 1967, and on the mailing list of the Communist Party, Eastern District, of Pennsylvania, in July, 1967. In 1969 [redacted] was on the mailing list of the "Daily World," also an east coast communist newspaper.

[redacted] inquiry gave only the name William C. Sullivan, but it undoubtedly pertains to the former Assistant to the Director, William C. Sullivan, in view of all the publicity attendant to his retirement.

Dear Mr. Gray:

I have been following your controversy in the press relative to the FBI's shooting of the tires on the hijacked Southern Airways plane and the dissatisfaction with this act expressed by members of the Airline Pilot's Association. I want to say without qualification that I think your decision was completely right.

I was quite unimpressed by the statement of the Pilot's Association that the pilot [ ] "was very close to having convinced the hijackers to release the passengers." Under such circumstances I know of no such yardstick to measure accurately "very close." It would seem to me that if the hijackers had at any time intended to release the passengers they had ample opportunities to do so.

We will probably agree that the most effective way to stop hijacking is for the country where they seek asylum to return them very promptly to the country in which the plane was hijacked. In lieu of this it seems to me that the FBI and other law enforcement officials must do everything possible to stop a hijacked plane from taking off and to arrest the hijackers. It can be cogently reasoned that the more hijacked planes that are disabled on the ground, the more it will discourage any potential hijackers.

I think a rough parallel can be drawn between the action taken against kidnappers and action against hijackers. When we move against kidnappers there is always the danger that the victim may be killed but there is no other course to take in such a violation except to move against the violator. So it is with hijackers.

With all good wishes,

Cordially,

Bill Sullivan

I think you have properly diagnosed the fact that any course of action the gentleman alleges he wishes to take to rectify the public impression

I think, like you and I, the majority of solid American citizens already have tabbed him for changed his stripes and any suggestions I might have would hardly be acceptable.

Hoover erratic in last years, former aide says

By Richard Connolly
Globe Staff

The man who stood up to the late J. Edgar Hoover and suffered the inevitable consequences — forced retirement from the third highest position in the FBI — has finally revealed the events which preceded the clash.

Former Asst. FBI Director William C. Sullivan, who spent 30 years in the bureau, had maintained public silence since the fall of 1971 when he returned from vacation and discovered that Hoover had ordered Sullivan's name removed from his office at headquarters and had chosen a new assistant.

Sullivan, a native of Bolton, Mass., and now a resident of Sugar Hill, N. H., had declined to discuss his departure from the FBI because he felt details might tarnish the image of the bureau.

But developments in Washington in the past few days, including discovery at the White House of missing FBI wiretap records involving newsmen and Administration officials, have prompted Sullivan to reflect on his final encounter with Hoover.

Ironically, the 61-year-old Sullivan, now a special assistant attorney general in charge of the Justice Dept.'s newly created Narcotics Intelligence Center in Washington, has been under consideration by the Nixon Administration as successor to Hoover.

He was a candidate for the FBI post before and after the brief administration of Acting Director Patrick Gray.

William C. Sullivan

One of Sullivan's biggest stumbling blocks was H.R. Haldeman, who recently resigned from his influential White House position. Haldeman was reported to have told President Nixon that Sullivan was "too independent" to be head of the FBI.

Sullivan, an intellectual who was one of the FBI's most liberal administrators, said Hoover appeared to have been "stark, raving mad" in recent years. He said Hoover became incensed when Sullivan sent him a letter in August 1971 questioning a number of Hoover's decisions and urging that he take "a cold, impartial inventory" of his ideas.

Sullivan infuriated Hoover when he said the FBI needed more public exposure and that Hoover's successor should not have "such absolute power, for we humans are simply not saintly enough to handle it properly."

He criticized Hoover for not encouraging divergent viewpoints and for surrounding himself with "yes men," "rubber stamps," "apple polishers," "flatterers," "self-promoters" and "timid, cringing sycophants."

Hoover summoned Sullivan to his office. "His hands were shaking. His face was clouded. He was raving mad," Sullivan said.

He quoted Hoover as saying: "No one has ever spoken to me like this since I became director in 1924."

"Mr. Hoover," Sullivan said he replied, "if someone had spoken to you like this before, it would not have been necessary to do so now."

Hoover ordered Sullivan to take sick leave, but the assistant director told Hoover he would have to "take action" to force him to leave.

Sullivan went on vacation within a few days of sending the letter (on Aug. 28, 1971), and when he returned, he discovered that the lock on his door had been changed. His name was off the door. There was a new assistant director.

Sullivan, who was raised on a farm and was a member of the Bolton School Committee, was in charge of all FBI domestic and international investigations at the time of his sudden departure. Years before his break with the boss, Hoover had mentioned him as a possible successor.

The conflict between the two men developed gradually, as Sullivan increasingly opposed what he considered Hoover's tyranny, his refusal to modernize the bureau, his political maneuvering and misdirected emphasis on Communism as the major threat to national security.

"You couldn't trust the guy," Sullivan said. "I'm no doctor, I can't make a judgment, but he had an unusual personality. In the last three years you couldn't depend upon him. He became extremely erratic."

"He'd call you in, and he'd give you wild talk. If you crossed him, he'd go into a rage. He had everyone frightened. It was awful. They (some of the administrators) were playing him. It was a tremendous game."

"They were playing him for raises and promotions. You couldn't give him enough flattery. In July, I decided to pursue a collision course," Sullivan said. "I wanted to bring all of this to a head."

"I had three choices. I could stay and accept all the evilness. I could shake his hand and say, 'Please let me retire,' and they would have given me a party. Or I could go out in a storm. Time will tell whether my choice was correct."

Sullivan told Hoover his letter was written "for your own good and for the FBI." He reminded Hoover of his many commendations and how he and others in the bureau had placed the work of the FBI above personal considerations. He said he had carried out Hoover's orders even when he disagreed with him.

"During the past year in particular," Sullivan told Hoover, "you have made it evident to me that you do not want me to disagree with you on anything ... You claim that you do not want 'yes men,' but you become furious at any employee who says 'no' to you."

Referring to their difference of opinion about the Communist threat, Sullivan said: "You know as well as I do that the Communist Party in the USA is not the cause of and does not direct and control the unrest and violence in this nation."

Sullivan told Hoover he had been wrong in not allowing agent John F. Shaw to resign "without prejudice" in 1971. Shaw, then a student at the John Jay College of Criminal Justice in New York, wrote a letter to a professor criticizing Hoover and the FBI in some areas and defending them in others.

Hoover transferred Shaw from New York to the Butte, Mont., FBI office — the Siberia of the bureau. Shaw decided to resign because of his wife's illness, and Hoover accepted the resignation "with prejudice." Shaw sued to remove the stigma and collected $13,000 which Sullivan said would not have been necessary if Hoover had acted otherwise.

Sullivan told Hoover his letter was not intended to anger the director, but was an attempt "to get across to you in my blunt, tactless way that a number of your decisions this year have not been good ones and that you should take a cold, impartial inventory of your ideas, policies, etc."

He told Hoover he did not want Hoover's reputation or that of the FBI destroyed by Hoover's decisions and that the director should "go out in a blaze of glory" when he retired.

"In view of your absolute power, you can fire me or do away with my position or transfer me or in some other way work out your displeasure with me," Sullivan said.

"So be it. I'm fond of the FBI and I have told you exactly what I think ... and as you know I have always been willing to accept the consequences of my ideas and actions."

The result was Sullivan's retirement.

Because Hoover was "not of sound mind," Sullivan said, records of wiretaps involving a number of newsmen and Administration officials suspected of news leaks affecting foreign policy were kept from Hoover.

There follows a summary of findings in our current inquiry regarding this matter conducted pursuant to memorandum from Acting Director Ruckelshaus to Mr. Felt dated 5/4/73 captioned "Wiretaps on Newspapermen."

NARRATIVE:

WILLIAM C. SULLIVAN

From approximately Spring, 1969, to early Summer, 1971, the FBI at the request of the White House, provided highly sensitive wiretap coverage in the interests of national security. (The exact times of the coverage will be provided by the Intelligence Division separately in their review of the recovered material.) The White House requests were based upon an extreme concern over "leaks" arising out of the Strategic Arms Limitation Talks (SALT), especially from the National Security Council (NSC) to the news media. The original requests were from either Dr. Henry Kissinger or General Alexander Haig (then Colonel Haig) for wiretap coverage on knowledgeable NSC personnel and certain newsmen who had particular news interest in the SALT talks. The specific requests for this coverage were made to either former Director J. Edgar Hoover or former Assistant to the Director William C. Sullivan (and on one occasion by General Haig to SA Robert Haynes, FBI, White House liaison). Written authorization from the Attorney General of the United States was secured on each wiretap.

Upon authorization Mr. Sullivan or representatives of the then Domestic Intelligence Division, namely Special Agents Michael Joseph Rozamus, Bernard A. Wells, Jr., or former Number One Man Joseph A. Sizoo, contacted principally Washington Field Office (WFO) Supervisor Courtland Jones, who would initiate the actual installations. When he received instructions from Bureau Headquarters, Jones would contact Special Agent Ernest Belter, who headed the WFO Monitoring Station. Jones would furnish names, addresses and telephone numbers. Belter in turn would furnish this information to Special Agent   who had liaison with the telephone company which would thereafter result in the physical completion of the wiretap operation.

Memo for Mr. Walters

Re: Sensitive Coverage Placed at Request of White House

Bureau instructions to Supervisor Jones, WFO, were to the effect that this was a highly sensitive project and that only one copy of the monitoring log was to be prepared, uninitialed and hand carried to the Domestic Intelligence Division from WFO. There is no information concerning this special project anywhere in the files of WFO. The logs were picked up each morning and delivered to Supervisor Jones, who would cause them to be hand delivered by a Special Agent to Mr. Sullivan's office.

Approximately a month after this project began the review and analysis of the logs were assigned exclusively to SA Bernard A. Wells, Jr. After review and analysis, he would dictate a summary in the form of a letter to the President of the United States and to Dr. Kissinger. Later, in approximately May, 1970, the letters containing the summaries were addressed to H. R. Haldeman. These letters when completed for signature, were hand carried to the Director's office and given to Miss [redacted] for the Director's approval. After approval by the Director SA Haynes would mark the yellow copy (Bureau file copy) "Delivered by Liaison" and noted the date and his initials. The letters were then sealed and personally delivered by SA Haynes to the Office of the addressee at the White House. b6

For some months at the beginning of the project the yellow file copies were maintained in the Director's office and filed by Mrs. [redacted]. She is unable to recall specifically the date, but an instruction was received that all of the yellow file copies were to be taken to Assistant Director Sullivan's office for safekeeping.

During the latter part of July, 1971, Robert C. Mardian, former Assistant Attorney General, was advised by W. C. Sullivan for the first time that the FBI had highly sensitive wiretap material which was "out of channel" at the FBI. (The wiretap project had been completed and discontinued prior to June 24, 1971, the date on which Mr. Hoover appeared before the Senate Appropriations Committee.) Sullivan told Mardian he was in trouble with Mr. Hoover and the possibility existed he would be fired. Sullivan wanted Mardian to convey to the President of the United States that this material was in existence. Sullivan's reason for doing this was to preclude Mr. Hoover's using the information to blackmail President Nixon, according to Mardian. Mardian contacted John Mitchell and relayed Mr. Sullivan's request. Mr. Mitchell said he would handle. Short time later Mardian contacted by Western White House, San Clemente, California, by individual whose name he would not divulge, and instructed to fly immediately to San Clemente to see the President. Mardian obeyed instructions. Met with President of the United States and received two instructions: one pick up material from Sullivan and deliver to White House, Washington, D. C.; second to insure Sullivan's material matched with summaries on hand at White House. Mardian returned to Washington and contacted Sullivan, requested all material to which Sullivan referred. This material delivered by Assistant Director, FBI, Charles Brennan. It was delivered in old "beat up" satchel, olive drab in color, with initials of W. C. Sullivan thereon. Shortly thereafter Mardian delivered satchel to Dr. Henry Kissinger and General Alexander Haig at White House. In Kissinger's and Haig's presence, White House correspondence checked against chronological check list which listed all material sent to White House by date. White House summaries in possession of Dr. Kissinger checked, found intact. As best Mardian recalls he then gave check list to Mr. H. R. Haldeman, who as best Mardian recalls, checked summaries in his possession against check list. Two summaries found missing. After check was made Mardian said he took the satchel, which he believes contained summaries, the check list and telephone surveillance logs, and delivered them to the Oval Room in White House. Mardian declined to identify recipient.

It should be noted here that on or about September 30, 1971, Mr. Hoover became aware that the sensitive material was no longer in the possession of the FBI. After having determined through interview of then Assistant Director Charles D. Brennan that he had turned the material over to Mardian Mr. Hoover telephoned Attorney General Mitchell on 10/2/71, at which time Mitchell informed the Director that sensitive files had been destroyed. Mitchell also told the Director that Mardian had the Director's approval for this destruction. Hoover quoted on an official Bureau document, "This is a lie." No further search for the sensitive files was thereafter conducted from 1971 since Mr. Hoover had been assured by the Attorney General they were destroyed.

As a result of the on-going inquiry ordered by Mr. [ ] it was determined that the sensitive material had not, in fact, been destroyed but had been delivered by Mr. Mardian to the White House as described above. It remained in the possession of Mr. John Ehrlichman April 30, 1973, when the material became part of the "Presidential Papers" where the material remained until 5/12/73, when it was turned over to Acting Director [ ] and Section Chief Thomas Smith.

There follows a summary of each pertinent witness involved in this inquiry. The summary contains the vital points of which each person can testify and is documented by an attachment behind this summary which is appropriately tabbed and the tab number set forth along with each interviewee.

ADMINISTRATIVE HANDLING AND FILING.

Mrs. [ ] Office of the Acting Director

b6

Mrs. [ ] advised sometime during 1969 Sullivan telephonically contacted Hoover, advising of possible leaks at White House, and White House

Memo for Mr. Walters

Re: Sensitive Coverage Placed at Request of White House

requested FBI place wiretaps. Hoover advised Sullivan that whatever wiretaps were placed would be done only with prior written authorization by the Attorney General. [ ] filed yellow file copy of wiretap authorizations in the "Official Confidential Files" maintained in Director's office. She also filed yellow file copy of summaries in same place. While W. C. Sullivan still Assistant Director of DID, decision was made by Mr. Hoover that all correspondence regarding "special wiretaps" which were maintained in the Director's office be transferred to Sullivan's custody at DID. [ ] recalls specifically Mr. Hoover stating, in her presence, many times that as long as he was the Director he would never personally authorize wiretap coverage on anyone without prior written Attorney General approval. (Interview Report Form on Mrs. [ ] see tab 1.)

b6

Miss [ ] to Former Director Hoover

Sometime during 1969 Sullivan advised Hoover of possible leaks within the National Security Council and that the White House requested the FBI place wiretaps on certain individuals. She believes requests originated with Colonel Haig. She remembers that Henry Brandon and William Safire were subjects of this coverage. Miss [ ] recalls Mr. Hoover advising Sullivan taps would be placed only after written authorization from Attorney General. She recalls summaries were hand carried to her from DID for Director's approval. After Director's approval, she removed yellow file copy and delivered original to Special Agent courier for delivery to White House. Yellow copy given to Mrs. [ ] for filing. Recalls that while Mr. Sullivan still Assistant Director of DID Mr. Hoover instructed all correspondence relating to this special be transferred to Sullivan's custody. (Interview Report Form on Miss [ ] see tab 2.)

b6

Miss [ ] Office of the Acting Director

In the absence of Mrs. [ ] she handled some of [ ] work and recalls filing several yellow copies of summaries relating to wiretaps in the "Official Confidential Files." She only recalls name of one individual mentioned in these wiretaps and that was the name of Safire. (Interview Report Form on Miss [ ] see tab 3.)

PREPARATION OF AUTHORIZATION LETTERS AND WIRETAP INSTALLATIONS

Former SA Michael Joseph Rozamus

Recalls being called into office by then Section Chief Brennan on a Sunday believed in March, 1970. Told by Sullivan White House was concerned about leaks and Bureau was requested to place wiretaps on, to his recollection,

Memo for Mr. Walters

Re: Sensitive Coverage Placed on Request of White House

about 6 individuals, three names of whom he only vaguely recalls, namely Colonel Pursley, John Sears, and [redacted] Sullivan told Rozamus this was a super-sensitive matter and no record to be maintained on these wiretaps and that Director Hoover insisted wiretaps be approved by Attorney General beforehand. Rozamus called in his secretary, dictated usual wiretap request forms over Sullivan's initials, and gave all copies to Sullivan for approval on following Monday morning. After Sullivan's approval, he instructed Rozamus to hand carry all copies of authorization requests in double sealed envelope marked for personal attention of Director Hoover. Rozamus personally delivered to Miss [redacted] Shortly thereafter Sullivan instructed Rozamus to place project into operation since approval received. Rozamus believes he called WFO Supervisor Jones to do this and orally confirmed to Sullivan that he had done so. Rozamus later dictated additional wiretap requests to either [redacted] or [redacted] Rozamus never reviewed logs or prepared log summaries. This was responsibility of SA Bernard Wells. Rozamus was in charge of maintaining daily up-to-date count of number of national security wiretaps FBI had throughout country, but Sullivan instructed him not to include these special wiretaps in that count. (Interview Report Form on SA Rozamus, see tab 4.)

Former SA Bernard A. Wells, Jr.

Currently employed as an Attorney Advisor, Criminal Division, Department of Justice. Advised that in the Summer of 1969 Sullivan apprised him of wiretap operation concerning the White House and instructed him to review material relating to project which was initially maintained in Director's office. Wells reviewed logs given to him by Mr. Sullivan and then dictated to Miss [redacted] now Mrs. [redacted] After Miss [redacted] left FBI he dictated all to [redacted] He dictated directly from logs with the resulting summary letter going only to the President of the United States and later to Mr. Haldeman, White House staff. Summary letters were comprised of an original and one yellow copy. He was later instructed by Mr. Sullivan to prepare summary letters sent to the Attorney General, Mr. Mitchell. When yellow file copies were returned from Director's Office to Mr. Sullivan's custody, he left logs for filing with [redacted] after dictation, and she filed them. Wells also prepared letters requesting wiretap authorization from Attorney General specifically recalling such letters on William Safire, Colonel Robert Pursley and [redacted] He advised the following individuals were people on whom wiretaps were placed in addition to the above: Henry Brandon, [redacted] Marvin Kalb, William Beecher, [redacted] [redacted] and [redacted] [redacted]

Wells said he could not now recall any specific conversations. He said he could generalize to the extent that in all wiretaps both the individual involved and his wife talked extremely loosely about the projects they were concerned with at the White House to both their friends and in some instances to members of the news media. He felt the tap was useful because it indicated how loosely and carelessly information of a highly critical nature was bandied about. Wells said he specifically recalled one instance in which the name Ellsberg appeared in the logs. He could not recall which log was involved; however, his best recollection was [redacted] In this instance [redacted] spoke to some unknown party of attending a party either with or for Ellsberg. Ellsberg was not a party to the conversation. He said in fact that in early June of 1971 as best he could recall on Mr. Sullivan's instructions he reviewed all the logs and determined Ellsberg was not a party to any telephone conversation. He neither made a call nor received one. b6

Wells recalled that the last time he saw any of the material involving this wiretap operation was approximately a month before he retired from Bureau service. He retired July 30, 1971. He said that Mr. Sullivan instructed him to discontinue the program. Wells advised that any correspondence he dictated was always over Mr. Sullivan's initials. He received this instruction from Mr. Sullivan.

Mr. Wells was specifically asked if he ever saw any material pertaining to this sensitive program, any digest of material, or any correspondence whatever relating to this material in Mr. Mardian's hands at any time. He replied emphatically, "No." This question was repeated three times. The answer in each instance was "No." He was asked if sometime in September or October, 1971, he had any reason to feel apprehensive over the fact that written Bureau communications concerning this program had found their way outside the FBI. He said "No." He said the only time he knew or was informed in any way that someone outside the Bureau may be in possession of this material was a telephone call he received from Mr. Edward Miller, Assistant Director, DID, about a week and a half after Mr. Sullivan retired. In this conversation, which was telephonic and when Mr. Wells was no longer an FBI employee, Mr. Miller requested him to call Mr. Mardian to ask him, Mardian, if he had any material relating to this special project. Mr. Miller told Mr. Wells that he had information to the effect that Mr. Mardian may have some of this information. Mr. Miller also supplied the telephone number in San Clemente, California, where Mr. Mardian could be reached.

Mr. Wells advised he reached Mr. Mardian almost immediately, relayed the message, and Mr. Mardian advised he would have to contact the Attorney General and the President before he could answer. Wells said he received a phone call a short time later and he was advised that Mr. Mitchell had told Mr. Mardian not to answer this question. Mardian asked Wells to so advise Mr. Miller and that Mr. Mardian would call Mr. Miller directly at a later time. Mr. Wells said he complied with Mardian's request and that's the last he heard of the incident. Wells was emphatic that he never saw any of the material after he dictated the last summary letter. He never saw it again either in the Bureau or since he left the Bureau.

Upon reinterview 5/10/73 Wells admitted that in May or early June, 1971, SA Robert Haynes, White House liaison, hand delivered from White House original summaries from wiretap material. Wells obtained inventory list from Sullivan which was checked by Haynes and Wells against each original letter from the White House and matched against FBI yellow file copy. To best of recollection the material checked against the master list. Thereafter all material returned to Sullivan's office. (Interview Report Forms on SA Wells, see tabs 5, 6, 7, and 8.)

[redacted] Former Secretary, DID

About Summer of 1969, personally assigned by Mr. Sullivan to take dictation from Mr. Wells in sensitive wiretap program. Thereafter she took letters from Wells known to be from wiretaps. States first letter was three pages long. Length specifically recalled but contents not recalled. Thereafter during first several months letters were prepared about every day. Later tapered off to about one per week. Specifically recalls letter to White House comprised of one white original and one yellow file copy. After typing never saw the material again. (Interview Report Form on [redacted] see tab 9.)

[redacted] former FBI Secretary

Advised from February or March, 1970, she began taking dictation and typing letters for SA Wells on information from logs concerning wiretaps. Each dictation included two separate letters, one directed to the President and the other to the Attorney General. She recalls filing logs in this program in Mr. Sullivan's safe-type cabinet in his office. After Mr. Sullivan moved to the Justice Building about July, 1970, she went with him and in that office continued to prepare letters for Mr. Wells. After approval from Mr. Sullivan she would personally hand carry them to Miss [redacted] in the Director's office. Mrs. [redacted] also recalled typing two or three authorization requests to the Attorney General.

Mrs. [redacted] said that about June or July, 1971, she prepared logs for Mr. Wells at his request to carry over to the DID building. She placed them in five large Government messenger envelopes and he departed with them. In August, 1971, she returned from vacation, noticed logs not returned, inquired of Mr. Sullivan who replied, "Mr. Wells and Mr. Brennan are working on them." She never saw logs again. (Interview Report Form on [redacted] see tab 10.)

Memo for Mr. Walt
Re: Sensitive Coverage

Mrs. [ ] Secretary, FBI

When Sullivan promoted from Assistant Director, DID, to Assistant to the Director and physically transferred to main Justice Building, he brought with him wiretap logs in connection with very special project. Subsequent to the move, additional wiretap logs received in Mr. Sullivan's office from WFO Agents from which summaries were prepared, in Sullivan's Justice Building Office by Wells, dictated to [ ] At a later date, under instructions of Sullivan, she reviewed some wiretap logs, marking pertinent portions for Wells' attention. In absence of Cathy Stone she may have typed some summary letters. Mrs. [ ] also filed documents concerning wiretap operation in Sullivan's office, filing logs in safe-type cabinet behind Sullivan's desk. (Interview Report Form on Mrs. [ ] see tab 11.)

Joseph A. Sizoo, former Number One Man, DID

He supervised DID in absence of Sullivan and was aware of wiretap operation, although had no personal knowledge. In Sullivan's absence there were occasions when he was in communication with Supervisor Jones, WFO, and he may have passed on instructions to install wiretaps but does not recall any details or names. It was his recollection that Sullivan instructed him to forward any logs received from WFO in a sealed envelope to Wells which he did. With regard to retention of wiretap material he believes it was held in Miss [ ] custody during first part of operation, but later transferred to Sullivan's office, where maintained in secure safe-type cabinet. (Interview Report Form on Joseph Sizoo, see tab 12.)

Supervisor Courtland J. Jones, WFO

During Spring or Summer, 1969, WFO orally requested by Bureau to institute discreet investigation of John Sears, White House employee, formerly an attorney in Mr. Nixon's law firm in New York City. Jones believes call came directly to him from Joseph Sizoo. Investigation in matter included requests for both a physical and telephone surveillance and Jones was specifically told coverage was to be handled most discreetly with only one copy of the transcription log which was then to be hand-carried to Assistant Director Sullivan's office. Transcription logs in the Sears matter as well as all subsequent telephone surveillance requests in this special project were picked up by Jones from the WFO Monitoring Station each morning, sealed, and then hand carried by selected Agents to Sullivan's office. Jones stated upon receipt of the oral request from Bureau Headquarters he would advise former SA Ernest H. Biter and SA [ ] so that the installation could be made. (Interview Report Form on Courtland Jones, see tab 13.)

Memo for Mr. Walters
Re: Sensitive Coverage

Ernest H. Belter, former SA (Retired) , WFO

Belter recalls Spring of 1969, Supervisor Jones advised him WFO had received urgent request from W. C. Sullivan that White House concerned about leaks. Sullivan told Jones that some technical surveillances (wiretaps) would be initiated by WFO on names to be furnished by Sullivan. Belter was advised by Jones not to keep any written records. Jones subsequently gave Belter telephone numbers and addresses and he in turn furnished this information to SA [ ] who handled telephone company liaison. Belter was advised to have prepared only one transcription of written log. Belter advised that to the best of his recollection approximately 12 to 15 such wiretap requests were handled by him. (Interview Report Form on Ernest Belter, see tab 14.)

Supervisor [ ] WFO

During Summer, 1969 (in his capacity as liaison representative for WFO with telephone company) he received oral instructions from Ernest Belter that certain wiretaps would be placed on certain phones in an attempt to uncover leaks at White House. [ ] when he received oral instructions from Belter to institute these wiretaps would in turn orally request the telephone company representative to effect the requested wiretap. (Interview Report Form on [ ] see tab 15.)

MONITORING EMPLOYEES, WFO

[ ] Special Clerk, WFO

Assigned to Monitoring Section, WFO, 1969-1970, and until mid-1971. Had occasion to monitor telephone surveillance maintained on [ ]. [ ] said he recalls on one occasion he saw another employee's log wherein an entry had been made that Daniel Ellsberg had stayed with [ ] over the weekend. During this visit Ellsberg made a call out of the [ ] residence to a now unrecalled individual in effort to set up a pot-smoking party. [ ] said the name of Daniel Ellsberg meant nothing to him at the time he observed the name on the log. (Interview Report Form on [ ] see tab 17.)

[ ] Special Clerk, WFO

Advised he was assigned duty of monitoring telephone surveillances, WFO, and so assigned in 1969-1970. Recalls he monitored telephone surveillance on [ ] who was employed at National Security Council. [ ] said that [ ] appeared to be close friend of a Daniel Ellsberg, who on occasion stayed at [ ] house overnight. [ ] does not recall any

[redacted] Special Clerk, WFO

Advised that sometime beginning in mid-1969 he was assigned as a relief man in connection with monitoring wiretap of [redacted] [redacted] said the only thing he can recall is the fact that [redacted] was a close associate of Daniel Ellsberg and that he conversed with Ellsberg in late 1969 and early 1970. [redacted] could not recall any details concerning conversations between [redacted] and Ellsberg, nor could he recall the exact dates of these conversations. (Interview Report Form on [redacted] see tab 18.)

DELIVERY OF WIRETAP SUMMARIES TO WHITE HOUSE

SA Robert H. Haynes, Supervisor, Intelligence Division

Haynes has been handling liaison functions with White House since 1969 and up until present time. Has impression that sometime beginning in 1969, Assistant Director Sullivan received requests from White House for installation of wiretaps on newsmen and certain White House Aides. Haynes reasonably certain that on one occasion General Haig telephoned him (Haynes) to request installation of wiretap on an individual identity not now recalled by Haynes. Haynes merely orally passed this request on to Sullivan.

Haynes had knowledge that former SA Wells was preparing letters to White House regarding results of this coverage. Haynes believes he began delivering these letters to White House in September, 1969. In doing so, Haynes would get call from Miss [redacted] Director's office. Haynes would then go to Miss [redacted] office, note on yellow file copy, "Delivered by Liaison," and note the date and his initials. Letter was then sealed and personally delivered by him to the office of the addressee on the envelope. At first letters were addressed to Dr. Kissinger, sometimes a dual letter to Dr. Kissinger and the President, but ultimately the letters were addressed to H. R. Haldeman.

b6

Sometime after Sullivan was designated Assistant to the Director and moved into Justice Building office, Haynes received telephone call from [redacted] from the White House to come by and pick up the letters on the sensitive coverage. Sometime subsequently he believes he was told by Sullivan that Assistant Attorney General Mardian had made arrangements for the other letters to the President or Dr. Kissinger to be returned and he was sent to pick them up. He went to General Haig, who made available from his office file certain letters. General Haig then referred SA Haynes to [ ] Assistant to John Ehrlichman, who made available certain letters. All of the letters were then returned by Haynes to Sullivan's office. There Haynes assisted former SA Wells in matching original letters against yellow file copies in Sullivan's office. There were also available at the time lists of names typed on plain bond paper. After checking letters against yellow file copies and the lists, SA Haynes believes some letters might have been missing and does not know if all letters were completely accounted for. This was last time he saw letters. (Interview Report Form on Robert Haynes, see tab 19.)

Memo for Mr. Walters
Re: Sensitive Coverage

REMOVAL FROM FBI CUSTODY OF SENSITIVE MATERIAL

Former Assistant to the Director William C. Sullivan

We attempted to interview Sullivan 5/9/73. He requested all questions concerning this matter be directed to him in writing. This was done by letter dated May 10, 1973. Sullivan responded by letter dated 5/11/73. The essence of his response is as follows:

Sullivan would not identify who at the White House had made wiretap requests, advising that such questions should be addressed to Mr. Haldeman. He stated such requests were received both orally and by written communications. They were received either directly of Mr. J. Edgar Hoover or indirectly through Sullivan. Sullivan stated written authorization was secured from the Attorney General in each case. Sullivan stated that the records of these wiretaps, which included logs, summaries and correspondence, were maintained in his office in his personal and official custody on the orders of Mr. Hoover. Sullivan stated that all of these records on Presidential and Attorney General requests were given to Mr. Robert C. Mardian, then Assistant Attorney General of the Internal Security Division of the Department. Sullivan stated that the material was disseminated from the wiretap by letter over Mr. Hoover's signature to the White House. For sometime the letters were addressed to and sent to the President and Dr. Kissinger. Later they were sent only to Mr. Haldeman. A few summaries were prepared for the Attorney General in memorandum form. Sullivan continued that instructions to discontinue which came from the White House and received by him were relayed to Mr. Hoover. Sullivan stated that he turned over the material of this special project on instruction to Mr. Mardian. He had no conversation about it with others. It was his decision. Sullivan stated the material would be given maximum security, where and by whom he did not know. Sullivan also did not know whether the Attorney General was aware of the disposition. (Interview recorded in memorandum to Mr. William D. Ruckelshaus, Acting Director, FBI, dated May 11, 1973. Questions sent to Mr. Sullivan dated May 10, 1973, are also attached to that memorandum. See tab 20.)

Memo for Mr. Walters
Re: Sensitive Coverage

Former Assistant Attorney General Robert C. Mardian

Robert C. Mardian interviewed Phoenix, Arizona, advised first time he heard of White House wiretaps subject of this inquiry was during last two weeks of July, 1971. Mardian at that time contacted by W. C. Sullivan, who advised in substance he had highly sensitive wiretap material which was "out of channel" at the FBI. Sullivan felt he was in trouble with Mr. Hoover and possibility existed he would be fired. W. C. Sullivan wanted Mardian to convey to President of United States that this material was in existence. Sullivan's reason for doing so was to preclude Mr. Hoover's using this information to blackmail President Nixon. This was strictly W. C. Sullivan's opinion. Mardian contacted John Mitchell, Attorney General, relayed Mr. Sullivan's request. Mr. Mitchell said he would handle. Short time later Mardian contacted by Western White House, San Clemente, California, by individual whose name he would not divulge, and instructed to fly immediately to San Clemente to see the President. Mardian obeyed instructions. Met with President of the United States and received two instructions: one pick up material from Sullivan and deliver to White House, Washington, D. C.; second to insure Sullivan's material matched with summaries on hand at White House. Mardian returned to Washington and contacted Sullivan, requested all material to which Sullivan referred. This material delivered by Assistant Director, FBI, Charles Brennan. It was delivered in old "beat up" satchel, olive drab in color, with initials of W. C. Sullivan thereon. Shortly thereafter Mardian delivered satchel to Dr. Henry Kissinger and General Alexander Haig at White House. In Kissinger's and Haig's presence, White House correspondence checked against chronological check list which listed all material sent to White House by date. White House summaries in possession of Dr. Kissinger checked, found intact. At best Mardian recalls he then gave check list to Mr. H. R. Haldeman, who as best Mardian recalls, checked summaries in his possession against check list. Two summaries found missing. After check was made Mardian said he took the satchel, which he believes contained summaries, the check list and telephone surveillance logs, and delivered them to the Oval Room in White House. Mardian declined to identify recipient. (Interview Report Form on Robert Mardian, see tab 21.)

John G. Mitchell, former United States Attorney General

Sometime during Spring or Summer of 1969 former Director Hoover met with him and advised FBI at that time had some wiretap coverage on certain individuals specifically requested by the White House. Mitchell stated it was not unusual for him not to know of this at its inception since on many occasions Mr. Hoover would deal directly with the President or the White House on extremely sensitive matters and circumvent the Attorney General's office. Mitchell states he never saw nor approved any such requests for wiretap coverage from the FBI, stating none were submitted to him by the FBI.

Memo for Mr. Walte
Re: Sensitive Coverage

(We have now recovered the material from the White House including authorization letters signed with the signature of Mr. Mitchell.) Mitchell recalls that in approximately Fall of 1971 Mardian contacted him and at this meeting told Mitchell he had just recently learned from W. C. Sullivan about existence of wiretap coverage. Mardian indicated to Mitchell Sullivan was furious over the way he was being treated by the Director and for this reason he disclosed the information concerning the wiretap to Mardian. Sometime thereafter, Sullivan turned over to Mardian all correspondence relating to this wiretap coverage.

During approximately this same period, Mr. Hoover contacted Mitchell and advised him of the problems he was having with Sullivan and, in fact, showed Mitchell a lengthy letter he, Hoover, received from Sullivan in which Sullivan accused Hoover of running contrary to the President's wishes in many instances. Mitchell recalls telling Mr. Hoover that he had no choice but to get rid of Mr. Sullivan. At this point Mitchell described Mr. Sullivan as being "a little nuts."

Concerning W. C. Sullivan, Mitchell related it was obvious he wanted the job of FBI Director since, on numerous occasions, Sullivan was in personal contact with various members of the White House staff and was always "name dropping and wheeling and dealing there." (White House) (Interview Report Form on Mr. Mitchell, see tab 22.)

SAC Charles D. Brennan, Alexandria Office, FBI

Brennan was formerly Assistant Director, Domestic Intelligence Division, located at 9th and D. Brennan recalled receiving visit in August, 1971, at his office from W. C. Sullivan, who said he had a heavily loaded brief case for Robert Mardian, containing highly sensitive material, which the Attorney General was interested in reviewing. According to Sullivan, Mardian unavailable at that moment and instructed Brennan to deliver brief case for him. Brennan, after Sullivan left, called Mardian's office, determining Mardian would be back in about 30 minutes, at which time Brennan then delivered brief case to Mardian which Mardian was expecting. Brennan claims he did not open brief case and cannot specifically recall whether or not it was even locked. (Interview Report Form on Charles Brennan, see tab 23.)

SEARCH FOR DISPLACED SENSITIVE MATERIAL IN OCTOBER, 1971

Assistant Director E. S. Miller, Intelligence Division

Miller advised that on 9/30/71 after it was realized sensitive material and documents in this matter were missing he was instructed to conduct a search

Memo for Mr. Walters
Re: Sensitive Coverage

of DID space, which was done with negative results. He was also instructed to reconstruct as many facts as possible concerning all facets of this coverage. This was done and Miller provided the results in a memorandum which is attached to the Interview Report Form which relates to Mr. Miller. On 10/1/71 Miller learned from SA Tom Smith that Mardian had had the sensitive material three weeks prior to that date according to former SA Bernard Wells. On 10/2/71 Miller contacted Wells and attempted to learn of its whereabouts. Wells was unable to assist in this matter but contacted Mardian and reportedly was told by Mardian that "This matter doesn't concern you at all. Tell Miller that I'll take care of it. Have him get in touch with me. Tell Miller not to worry, Sullivan won't get them." The Director then reportedly contacted Attorney General Mitchell who advised that Mardian had assured Mitchell that the sensitive material had been destroyed. The Attorney General also reportedly told the Director that Mardian said the Director approved Mardian's taking possession of the files. (Interview Report Form on E. S. Miller, see tab 24.)

Special Agent Thomas J. Smith, Section Chief, Intelligence Division, FBI

SA Smith had no personal or first-hand knowledge of wiretaps on newsmen or Government officials while this special was going on. However, in September, 1971, he was told by SA Wells that Wells had seen the sensitive material in the possession of Robert C. Mardian, that Wells was shocked to have seen these highly sensitive documents in Mardian's possession since they were FBI property. Wells reported to Smith that Mardian wanted him to keep the documents for him. Wells reportedly refused. (Interview Report Form on Thomas J. Smith, see tab 25.)

RECOVERY OF SENSITIVE MATERIAL

On the evening of May 10, 1973, information was received that Robert C. Mardian had turned the sensitive documents over at the White House to Mr. John Ehrlichman.

John D. Ehrlichman

Ehrlichman said that although he could not recall the exact date, he does recall Robert C. Mardian being associated with the delivery of a stack of wiretap logs and other written material which he knew to be summaries of the wiretap logs to the White House. He knows this because he recalls "sampling" the material at the time he took possession. Mr. Ehrlichman said the material to which he was referring was filed in a two-drawer, safe-type cabinet located in his outer office. Mr. Ehrlichman said that from the time he received this material it remained in the cabinet until about April 30, 1973. On that date he was considering submitting his resignation, recalled the presence of this wiretap information, and issued orders to have it removed from his office and filed with "Presidential Papers." (Interview Report Form on John Ehrlichman, see tab 26.)

Memo for Mr. Walters
Re: Sensitive Coverage

Harry R. Haldeman

Haldeman advised he recalled receiving summary letters concerning these wiretaps and that he received them routinely from FBI. Contents did not contain any startling information and he eventually delegated authority to read this material to Mr. Higby. He was asked specifically if he had at any time engaged in checking White House summary letters against FBI copies of these letters with Mr. Mardian. He said as best as he could recall the answer would be "No." Although he had no direct knowledge from the information he learned from Mr. Ehrlichman the sensitive material was still at the White House as of May 11, 1973, according to Mr. Haldeman. (Interview Report Form on Harry Haldeman, see tab 27.)

General Alexander M. Haig

General Haig advised that the records being sought were presently in impoundment at the White House as of May 11, 1973, and would be available for review by Mr. Ruckelhaus.

(The material at the White House was reviewed by Acting Director Ruckelshaus and Special Agent Thomas Smith May 12, 1973, and returned to FBI custody.)

With respect to the decision and request for installation of these wiretaps, General Haig said that he could not answer this because the action taken was the result of joint input. General Haig was in contact with the Bureau in connection with matters in which Dr. Kissinger had a direct interest. He feels requests for wiretaps were generally transmitted to former Assistant Director William C. Sullivan. General Haig was also asked if in his opinion these wiretaps were productive. He stated he feels they were invaluable and had been of considerable assistance in helping to control leaks to the press at the White House. (Interview Report Form on Alexander Haig, see tab 28.)

As a result of recovering the sensitive material from the White House today a review of all the authorized wiretaps signed by Attorney General Mitchell produces the following list of individuals on whom approved authorizations were obtained:

Memo for Mr. Walte
Re: Sensitive Coverage

By intra-Bureau communication dated October 6, 1971, it was indicated that former Assistant Director Sullivan had by letter 10/5/71 requested retirement. In his retirement letter request he had also requested permission for him to keep his badge. Mr. Felt recommended against this and Mr. Hoover concurred in the following language: "I concur." In view of circumstances surrounding his separation and more particular in view of his turning over to Mardian highly secret and confidential FBI files for destruction without any approval by the Bureau he is not to be on any mailing lists nor shown any consideration." (See intra-Bureau communication dated 10/6/71, tab 29.)

To document the conversation between former Special Agent Bernard Wells and Special Agent Thomas Smith regarding Wells' observance of sensitive material in Mardian's possession after Wells' retirement, the memorandum of SA Smith to Mr. E. S. Miller dated October 1, 1971, is attached. (See letter from Smith to Miller, tab 30.)

SPECIAL SQUAD

Since May 6, 1973, a special squad has been working under Acting Director Ruckelshaus in an effort to discover what happened to the sensitive wiretap material. This squad was composed of specially selected FBI Headquarters personnel due to the highly sensitive nature of the inquiry. 42 interviews were conducted all by the special squad which included travel to places such as Phoenix, Arizona; Tampa, Florida; Savannah, Georgia; New York City, and Stamford, Connecticut.

ACTION:

For information.

Mr. William C. Sullivan

- a. If so, describe such records.
  - b. Where, when, and by whom were such records kept?
  - c. Were these records maintained in your personal and official custody while serving as Assistant Director and Assistant to the Director?
  - d. If so, on whose order were they so maintained?
  - e. Who had access to these records while in your custody?
  - f. What became of the records in your custody?
6. If some records were maintained by FBI personnel other than yourself describe the records, identify the persons having custody, the period of time of such custody, the present whereabouts of such records, if known, and if not known, any information in your possession relating to their maintenance and disposition.
7. Identify the officials in the United States Department of Justice and the FBI responsible for carrying out the wiretap program. Specify the duties and responsibilities of each.
8. To the best of your recollection, name the individuals on whom wiretaps were placed.
9. To the best of your recollection, state the approximate times during which each wiretap was in operation.
10. To the best of your recollection, describe the results achieved from each wiretap.
11. Identify all FBI personnel who had any connection with the installation, review, analysis, recording and dissemination of the results of the wiretap information in question.

SENSITIVE COVERAGE PLACED AT REQUEST OF THE WHITE HOUSE

I have been informed that upon interview by an Inspector and a Special Agent of this Bureau you requested that all questions concerning this matter be directed to you in writing and that you would thereafter, to the best of your ability, answer each question presented. The following is in response to that request:

Background

As you know, in early 1969 the FBI was requested to initiate sensitive coverage (wiretaps) of certain White House staff members and others in order to uncover possible leaks at the White House affecting the national security. The purpose of this interrogatory is to fully resolve details of that coverage. You are requested to respond to the following:

1. The identity of the White House official or officials who requested that the FBI initiate this sensitive wiretap coverage and identity of any follow-up calls for similar coverage on others.
2. By what method were these requests for wiretap coverage transmitted to the FBI?
3. To what FBI official (s) were these requests made?
4. Was written authorization received at the FBI from then Attorney General Mitchell, as was the procedure in other national security matters of this nature? Was a written authorization secured from the Attorney General on each? If not, why? If so, where might such written authorization now be located?
5. Were there records of these wiretaps kept by the FBI at any time?

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED
HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED
DATE 11-24-82 BY 9788

Mr. William C. Sullivan

12. To whom and in what manner was such information disseminated?

13. From whom and in what manner were instructions issued to discontinue the wiretaps?

14. To whom in the FBI were these instructions issued? When did all such activity cease on wiretaps, the records of which were maintained in your custody?

15. On October 5, 1971, you advised Mr. W. Mark Felt that you gave Charles D. Brennan (now SAC at FBI Office in Alexandria) a brief case containing the sensitive material obtained as a result of the above wiretaps with instructions to Brennan to give the brief case to then Assistant Attorney General Robert Mardian. Describe in detail the contents of this brief case. Specifically cover whether it contained the authorizations from the Attorney General applicable to these wiretaps. When was this done? Was it done before or after you applied for retirement?

16. Who in the FBI made the decision to turn over internal FBI records directly to Mr. Mardian? What conversations did you have with others regarding this? With whom?

17. On whose authority was this decision made?

18. Why was this material turned over to Mr. Mardian?

19. What disposition was made of this material and by whom? Was the Attorney General aware of the disposition?

20. Were any copies made by you or anyone else to your knowledge of this sensitive material before or after its transmittal to Mr. Mardian? If so, what happened to them?

21. As this wiretap project was on-going, to whom in the White House or any other place were reports made concerning results obtained?

22. How were these reports conveyed (written or oral), and with what frequency were they made?

Mr. William C. Sullivan

23. Do you have any information which would indicate that any specific wiretap coverage continued after authorization was rescinded? If so, provide details.

24. Do you have any knowledge, or reason to believe that Mr. Mardian or anyone else turned over any material in this matter to Gordon Liddy,   James McCord, John Dean, or anyone else at the White House or elsewhere? If so, provide details.

25. There have been leaks of FBI data concerning this matter to Time magazine and possibly other periodicals. Are you aware of the source of any such leaks? If so, provide details.

An expeditious response is requested.

SUBJECT: SENSITIVE COVERAGE PLACED AT REQUEST OF THE WHITE HOUSE

DATE: May 11, 1973

Please refer to your memorandum to me of May 10, 1973. In answering your questions I will follow the format of your memorandum extending from question 1 through 25.

1. In regard to the White House, I think it would be most appropriate if this question was addressed to Mr. Haldeman.
2. By both conversations and written communications.
3. The requests were made either directly of Mr. J. Edgar Hoover or indirectly through myself.
4. Written authorization was secured from the Attorney General in each case.
5. Yes, these records were maintained in my office at the FBI.

The records included logs, summaries and correspondence:

(b) As indicated, these records were maintained in my office.

Yes.

(d) They were maintained by me on the orders of Mr. J. Edgar Hoover. He did not want them in FBI files and said so on two or three occasions.

(e) Mr. Bernard Wells, then a supervisor in the Domestic Intelligence Division, myself, and any secretary selected to handle the dictation (restricted to two for the most part).

(f) These records, on Presidential and Attorney General request, were given to Mr. Robert C. Mardian, then Assistant Attorney General of the Internal Security Division of the Department.

6. The records were maintained, as indicated, in my office and not by personnel other than myself.
7. Apart from the secretaries, persons handling the wiretap program were Robert Haynes who handled liaison, Bernard Wells who handled the analysis and dictation, and myself handling administration.
8. To the best of my recollection, the individuals on whom wiretaps were placed included: [redacted] Henry Brandon, Mr. [redacted] Mr. [redacted] Mr. [redacted] and [redacted] There were others but I do not remember them at this time (around 16-18). b6
9. I do not remember the approximate times but the general time period was from 1969 - 1971.
10. The records were considered to be very helpful in some cases and in others they were of little or no value. I do not recall the specific elements involved.
11. It is suggested that the identity of FBI personnel who were connected with the installations be secured from the Washington Field Office. I do not know who made the installations. I have already set forth those handling the materials at the Seat of Government.
12. The material was disseminated by letter over Mr. J. Edgar Hoover's signature to the White House. For some time the letters were addressed to and sent to the President and Dr. Kissinger. Later they were sent only to Mr. Haldeman.* A few summaries were prepared for the Attorney General in memorandum form.
13. As I recall, instructions to discontinue came from the White House and were relayed to Mr. Hoover.
14. In the main, these instructions were issued to me. However, Mr. Hoover did have some conversations with Mr. Ehrlichman, Mr. Haldeman, and Dr. Kissinger. As I recall, the wiretap activity ceased during the first part of 1971.
15. The contents of the case included logs and letters related to the special wiretaps project. As I recall, they did include the authorizations of the Attorney General. As previously indicated, on instructions this material was furnished to Mr. Mardian before my retirement.
16. I turned over the materials of this special project on instruction to Mr. Mardian. I had no conversation about it with others. It was my decision.

*In May 1970 there was a meeting at the White House of the President, Mr. Haldeman and Mr. Hoover. They decided the letters would go to Mr. Haldeman.

Mr. William D. Ruckelshaus

17. As previously stated, on instruction I turned over the material, following a discussion in depth with Mr. Mardian relative to security and possible abuses of the material.
18. As previously stated, this material was turned over to Mr. Mardian in response to Presidential and Attorney General request.
19. The material was to be given maximum security. Where and by whom I do not know. I do not know whether the Attorney General was aware of the disposition.
20. No.
21. To Dr. Kissinger and later this was changed to Mr. Haldeman.
22. They were written reports, hand-carried. I do not recall the exact frequency but they were sent over whenever anything appeared on the logs which were relevant.
23. No.
24. No.
25. No, I am not aware of the source of such leaks. However, judging from the nature of this information and the precise details if correct, it would seem that some of it may have come from inside the FBI.

William C. Sullivan
The Public Information Office of the Department of Justice contacted the External Affairs Division early this date to advise that  an independent producer who is working on a movie on the life of J. Edgar Hoover, was filming former Bureau space in the Department of Justice.  with Departmental permission, had photographed the former space occupied by the office of J. Edgar Hoover and intended to photograph the portions of the corridors used by the tour route in FBI Laboratory space. In order to protect Bureau interests, SA T. J. Harrington of the External Affairs Division immediately proceeded to the Department of Justice to observe the photographing of the tour route. The photographing consisted merely of the corridors that the tourists used in observing the Laboratory's facilities. According to  these movies will be used to reconstruct these areas for the J. Edgar Hoover film.

SA Harrington engaged  in conversation during which  advised that he had been up to Sugar Hill, New Hampshire, approximately two weeks ago and had held discussions with former Assistant to the Director W. C. Sullivan. He advised that he had traveled to New Hampshire for the visit with "New York Times" reporter  who is a close personal friend of  indicated that Sullivan appeared to be in excellent health during the period of his visit.

HOUSE

Pages H3696-H3697. Congressmen Robert L. F. Sikes (D-Fla.), John J. Flynt (D-Ga.), John M. Slack (D-W.Va.), and Samuel L. Devine (R-Ohio) took issue with an item in the Washington Post of May 15 in which former Assistant to the Director William Sullivan is quoted as saying Mr. Hoover was "not of sound mind" and a "master blackmailer." Mr. Devine called Mr. Sullivan's remarks a "really cheap shot" and added, "He attacked the record of a man such as Mr. Hoover, after he has passed on, and that should speak for itself as to his integrity and credibility."

Pages H3697-H3699. The House received a message from the President transmitting his legislative proposal to establish a Nonpartisan Commission on Federal Election Reform. Congressman Gerald R. Ford (R-Mich.) stated, "I welcome President Nixon's proposal for a truly bipartisan Commission on Federal Election Reform. He has acted with commendable dispatch and I hope the majority leadership of the Congress will move with similar speed and nonpartisan spirit to get started on this important national priority."

Pages H3708-H3709. Congressman Wayne Owens (D-Utah) advised that he was introducing legislation to provide "that on the motion of any person a district court judge, if he believes the interests of justice so require, may appoint a special prosecutor to investigate and prosecute cases where present or former employees of the executive branch have allegedly committed offenses against the United States or where there may be a conflict of interests involving the regular prosecutor. Such a special prosecutor would have all the authority to investigate and prosecute normally exercised by the U.S. attorney. Moreover, he would be truly independent of the executive branch. He could only be removed by the court and would not be subject to supervision by the Attorney General, the President, or any other official of the executive branch." The text of this bill is set forth in the Record. Mr. Owens commented concerning the need for the assignment of a special prosecutor in the Watergate case and added, "The bill I am introducing today is intended to look beyond Watergate and to reduce the likelihood of future coverups." Mr. Owens also placed in the Record the text of a bill introduced in 1951 by then Senator Nixon similar to the bill he is now introducing.

Pages H3719-H3721. Congressman Michael Harrington (D-Mass.) introduced for himself and several other Members a resolution (H.Res. 396) creating a Select Committee on Children to conduct an investigation and study of social conditions adversely affecting the development of children. During his discussion, he cited FBI statistics on crimes committed by persons under the age of 18.

Adjournment: Until Thursday, May 17, 1973, at 12 noon.

SENATE

Adjournment: Until Thursday, May 17, 1973, at 10 a.m.

EXTENSIONS OF REMARKS

Pages E3234-E3235. Congressman Lawrence J. Hogan (R-Md.) stated "since the death of the former Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, J. Edgar Hoover, the Bureau has been operating without the leadership of a permanent Director. It was most heartening for me to recently read a resolution prepared by the board of directors of the Society of Former Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigations, Inc." He inserted this resolution in the Record "so that all may be aware that it is in the best interest of our country to appoint a permanent Director as expediently as possible."

Pages E3255-E3256. Congressman Lawrence J. Hogan (R-Md.) advised that May 15 has been designated as "Peace Officers Memorial Day" in recognition of the men who gave their lives in the performance of duty. He placed in the Record a list of law enforcement officers and their agency, killed between May 15, 1972, and May 15, 1973. This list included "F.B.I. Agent Gregory W. Spinelli, Charlotte, North Carolina, March 15, 1973."

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR:

Hoover's Last Years

There is not the slightest truth to the news account published May 15 in The Washington Post quoting former Assistant to the Director of the FBI, William C. Sullivan, as describing the late J. Edgar Hoover as "not of sound mind" in his last years.

This is simply the statement of a disgruntled former employee, William C. Sullivan, who was forced to retire from the FBI by Mr. Hoover in October, 1971.

absolute power you can fire me, or do away with my position (as you once did) or transfer me or in some other way work out your displeasure with me. So be it. I am fond of the FBI and I have told you exactly what I think about certain matters affecting you and this Bureau and as you know I have always been willing to accept the consequences of my ideas and actions."

Congressman Slack, as you are well aware I would not have that article by Jack Nelson appear in any paper for any reason. I am very disturbed about it. But the harm has been done and now I am trying to think of ways and means to undo this harm.

I know how busy you must be and I am sorry that you had to devote your time to a matter which should not have been elevated to a public level.

If you have any suggestions as to how I can rectify this situation I would be most grateful to you for whatever views you may care to submit to me. For your information I am sending this letter also to Congressmen Flynt, Sikes and Devine. I am also corresponding with different newspapers and individuals in an endeavor to correct this situation.

Sincerely,

William C. Sullivan

MAY 22 A.M.

Honorable John Slack
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C.

Dear Congressman Slack:

I have learned of your remarks reported in the Congressional Record on May 16, 1973, concerning statements recently attributed to me in the press with respect to the late J. Edgar Hoover. I want to assure you that remarks which I made about Mr. Hoover were completely garbled and misquoted. Under no circumstances would I publicly speak in such a manner concerning Mr. Hoover or anyone else, and I am seeking an explanation from those responsible for this mistake.

The differences I had with Mr. Hoover prior to my departure from the FBI dealt solely with a number of policy issues. I made my views and criticisms known directly to Mr. Hoover in writing when the differences arose, before I left the Bureau. To illustrate to you how the issues were presented, my letter of August 28, 1971, to Mr. Hoover recapitulated those differences and closed with the following paragraphs:

"What I have said here is not designed to irritate or anger you but it probably will. What I am trying to get across to you in my blunt, tactless way is that a number of your decisions this year have not been good ones; that you should take a good, cold, impartial inventory of your ideas, policies, etc. You will not believe this but it is true: I do not want to see your reputation built up over these many years destroyed by your own decisions and actions. When you elect to retire I want to see you go out in a blaze of glory with full recognition from all those concerned. I do not want to see this FBI organization which I have gladly given 30 years of my life to along with untold numbers of other men fall apart or become tainted in any manner. We have a fine group of men in the FBI and we need to think of every one of them also.

"As I have indicated this letter will probably anger you. When you are angered you can take some mighty drastic action. You have absolute power in the FBI (I hope the man who one day takes over your position will not have such absolute power for we humans are simply not saintly enough to possess and handle it properly in every instance). In view of your
